

Civil Service Act

lished by section 29 of the Civil Service Act, that is, the preference granted in favour of the persons mentioned therein, shall be applied in respect of appointments to such positions. That preference is reaffirmed and reincorporated into the amending bill. I have not the slightest doubt that the members and officials of the government who will carry this measure into effect will give due consideration to the statutory enactment of the parliament of Canada, to which the ministers of the crown who administer the act are responsible. That is all I can say.

The house divided on the amendment (Mr. Garland, Bow River), which was negatived on the following division:

WAYS AND MEANS

CUSTOMS TARIFF AMENDMENT

Mr. E. N. RHODES (Minister of Finance) moved the second reading of Bill No. 95, to amend the Customs Tariff.

Some hon. MEMBERS: Carried.

Mr. YOUNG: Mr. Speaker, I move that the house do now revert to motions.

Mr. SPEAKER: The house has already by resolution proceeded from motions to orders of the day, and I do not think it can undo what it has done in that respect, at this sitting. The second reading of Bill No. 95 was carried.

Motion agreed to and bill read the second time.

Mr. RHODES: I move, Mr. Speaker, that you do now leave the chair for the house to go into committee on Bill No. 95.
