

Business of the House

Messrs. Aiken, Chapdelaine, Choquette, Gregoire, Jewett (Miss), Knowles, Lambert, Lamoureux, MacEachen, Macquarrie, Martineau, Pickersgill, Walker, Woolliams.

Motion agreed to.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Nowlan: I presume the order of business for tomorrow is that outlined by the house leader yesterday?

Mr. Pickersgill: Yes. Perhaps I should make provision for the contingency tomorrow evening. If, as I hope will be the case, we have disposed of the bill in committee by five o'clock we will take the estimates of northern affairs tomorrow evening. If, however, we go on as far as eight o'clock before we get into committee of supply, we would take the estimates of the Department of Fisheries and try to finish them. Of course, if we do not finish until 10.30 we will not be able to take the estimates of either department.

Mr. Nowlan: And you will go on with the bill on Friday?

Mr. Pickersgill: Yes, of course. If perchance this bill is not disposed of tomorrow we will go on with it on Friday.

It being three minutes after six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put.

Mr. Chairman, may I call it six o'clock?

[Text]

The Deputy Chairman: It being six o'clock shall I rise, report progress, and request leave to sit again at the next sitting of the house?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Clause 1 stands.

Progress reported.

HOUSE OF COMMONS

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER
DISPATCH OF BUSINESS—ANNOUNCEMENT OF PERSONNEL

Hon. J. W. Pickersgill (Secretary of State): Mr. Speaker, I think there was an understanding that I could have leave to revert to motions to make a motion to establish the membership of the committee on procedures and organization. If that is agreeable I would move the motion now.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Batten): Is it agreed that the house shall revert to motions?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Pickersgill: I move, seconded by the hon. member for St. Boniface (Mr. Teillet):

That the special committee on procedures and organization of the House of Commons appointed October 23, 1963, be composed of Mr. Speaker and