paper, and strongly bound in cloth, boveled boards. Price $3.00. MONVEVAL. A Tale of Paris in the Days of St. Vincent de Paul. By Rev. W. H. Anderdon. 12mo. cloth, $1.00. Cloth, full St. 20.0. "Awrones as Bossavat presents us with a curious marrative of arents occurring in and neft Paris in the days of the Frond, depicted under the siling form of romance; the author—thoroughly versed in the history of that period, and using his story simply as a vehicle for illustrating the manners and morals prevailing at that day—furnishes us with a series of ourratis of the great men who wayed the destinice of France during the safet portions of Louis XIV's reign. "This book presents the remarkable aspect of romance utterly devide of aven an allusion to love. To the reader, unlearned yet interested in the history of these stirring times, the knowledge acquired under the saming form will be most welcome; and should his sympathies be estilated in the faiserests of Catholicism the attraction will be greatly enhanced. The liberality, however, of the writer's views, and the absence of all religious nimosity, will render this work acceptable to those differing from itm in belieft=—Example Toble.
