

Contents.

v

CHAPTER VIII.

The aurora borealis—"Jumpers"—Squaring timber—Rafts
—Camping out—A public meeting—Winter fashions—My toe frozen—A long winter's walk—Hospitality—Nearly lost in the woods pp. 143—158

CHAPTER IX.

Involuntary racing—A backwoods parsonage—Graves in the wilderness—Notions of equality—Arctic winters—Ruffed grouse—Indian fishing in winter—A marriage—Our winter's pork pp. 159—17

CHAPTER X.

Our neighbours—Insect plagues—Military officers' families in the bush—An awkward mistake—Dr. D—nearly shot for a bear—Major M—Our candles—Fortunate escape from a fatal accident pp. 171—181

CHAPTER XI.

"Now Spring returns"—Sugar-making—Bush psalmody—
Bush preaching—Worship under difficulties—A clerical
Mrs. Partington—Biology—A ghost—"It slips good"— Squatters pp. 182—196

CHAPTER XII.

Bush magistrates—Indian forest guides—Senses quickened by necessity—Breaking up of the ice—Depth of the frost—A grave in winter—A ball—A holiday coat
pp. 197—207