

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION,	17
The Author sets out from Boston on his travels,	25
Description of fort Michilimachinac,	26
— fort La Bay,	27
— the Green Bay,	27
— lake Michigan,	30
Arrives at the town of the Winnebagoes,	32
Excursion of the Winnebagoes towards the Spanish settlements,	33
Description of the Winnebago lake,	35
Instance of resolution of an Indian woman,	36
Description of the Fox River,	37
Remarkable story of a Kettle snake,	38
The great town of the Saukies,	39
Upper town of the Ottawagumies,	40
Description of the Ouisconsin River,	40
Lower town of the Ottawagumies, or, Les Prairies Des Chiens,	41
An attack by some Indian plunderers,	42
Description of the Mississippi from the mouth of the Ouisconsin to lake Pepin,	43
— lake Pepin,	44
Remarkable ruins of an ancient Fortification,	45
The River Bands of the Noudowessie Indians,	46
Adventure with a party of these, and some of the Chipeways,	47
Description of a remarkable Cave,	48
Uncommon behaviour of the Prince of the Winnebagoes at the fall of St. Anthony,	50
Description of the Falls,	51
Extent of the Author's Travels,	52
Description of the river St. Pierre,	54
Sources of the four great rivers of North America,	54
Reflections on their affinity,	55
The Naudowessies of the plains, with whom the	