

LIVELY MEETING HELD AT SARNIA

Party Feeling Ran High at Nominations in West Lambton.

city treasury of $400 a year in the fixing of a local company's assessment. He claimed that the company in question was misrepresented and that the town stood to gain where it would have lost. His position had not been official in the private bills committee as the report had it.

In plunging into the real substance of his address, Mr. Hanna stated his position on temperance for all time. He referred to letters he had received from persons in different parts of the riding, and particularly to the stand taken by W. W. A. Walden of Point Edward, who had attacked the government from the pulpit and had followed up with a challenge for Mr. Hanna to define his actual position. The statement he gave was that of Sir James Whitney in his manifesto, with especial disapproval of the "temperance question being dragged into the arena of party politics." Such a policy was not fair or legitimate. It did not give the people a fair opportunity of expressing their opinion.

How to Public Sentiment.
The government was awaiting an expression of public sentiment. They were desirous of doing what the people wanted in regard to the liquor question. Two great opportunities were advanced in the Scott Act and local option. Both went further than the rural program for bars, shops and clubs were like closed at the voice of the public.

The suggestion that the great percentage of lunatics in public maintained asylums and institutions were there thru drink was hotly resented. "As the minister in charge of the department whose wards these unfortunate are, I want to deny that," he declared. "It is unfair to the persons themselves, to their relatives and homes."

He referred to the tremendous income which the government was gaining from the liquor licenses, notwithstanding their steady reduction, an income which was turned to sociological development and the welfare of unfortunate people.

Bilingualism Real Issue.
Bilingualism, he claimed, was a real issue to be dealt with by the electorate, and he acknowledged himself standing firmly by the regulations shown on the statute books. Considerable interest in this problem is manifest.

COULD NOT EAT-- FAILING FAST

Captain on Great Lakes Restored to Health by "Fruit-a-lives."

For thirty years Capt. Swan followed the Great Lakes. He has now retired and lives at Port Burwell, where he is well known and highly esteemed.

H. SWAN, ESQ.

"PORT BURWELL, Ont., May 8, 1914.—A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years I have taken 'Fruit-a-lives' and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that 'Fruit-a-lives' have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking 'Fruit-a-lives' according to directions any person with dyspepsia will get better."

rested here, according to the attitude of those present at the meeting. "Are you in favor of bilingualism in Ontario?" demanded a man in the audience.

"No," was the reply. "Will you support legislation to have English the sole language of instruction?" followed next and a reply in the affirmative brought a roar of applause.

Cowan Repeated Charge.
The first matter approached by Mr. Cowan was the local one relating to the tax rates on the Mueller Company. He claimed that the town solicitor did not know of the legislative arrangement until a year after it was passed, and that the town in his opinion would lose steadily for twenty years.

In Sarnia itself the Liberal candidate is not making "abolish the bar" the issue. Three-quarters of his time was consumed in an attack upon the management of the provincial treasury.

and the extravagant spending of money. The government, he declared was now three hundred millions in the hole. They were going at a sixty-mile clip in expenditure, and the country was paying the piper.

During his address on "Redistribution of Income," the speaker was subjected to much heckling and repeatedly paused to obtain a hearing. He paraphrased the Biblical story of Jonathan and David, and claimed that Mr. Hanna in managing the "gerrymandering" process for the government had stolen the "little ewe lamb" of the Liberals. It showed that a great fear had gripped them.

Liquor Alliance Alleged.
In dealing with the temperance situation he called attention especially to the home riding. The three-fifths clause had been drawn in cold blood and Lambton had learned it in experience. But for the whole country would have been dry today, for a total majority of twelve hundred votes had been cast.

"I am glad to say that I did not think the whole Conservative party stands behind the Whitney government. The government does not represent the better element of the party," he declared. "Thank God the liquor interests do not stand behind the party as a whole, but only behind the administration."

system be broken and the conscience be their guide at the polls. The responsibility was on those who were tied by party. He declared in addition that the whole city was clamoring for local option in taxation and expressed confidence that the whole of Lambton would see the necessity of turning out an administration which professed so much on bilingual schools and had done so little. Personally he urged legislation to provide government support to English schools only.

In replying, Mr. Hanna spoke of the vast revenue of the province and showed that the bookkeeping was accurate and reliable. Even novices in finance knew that expenditures on such enterprises as the hydro-electric must come out of capital account and not revenue. The meeting concluded with a round of applause for both speakers.
