NEW RESTAURANT ON QUEEN STREET

McConkey's Splendidly Equipped Lunch Quarters, Opposite City Hall, Opened.

One of the most elaborately equipped restaurants in Toronto was opened Saturday evening on Queen street, opposite the City Hall, by Ernest G. E. McConkey as a self-servicing lunch, with accommodation for 500 persons.

No expense has been spared by the management to give their patrons excellent service under the most sanitary conditions. The second floor has been specially adapted for ladies, and also the self-servicing, and has been observed the table chairs, such as are installed on the ground floor, have been replaced by handsome tables and chairs.

The front of the building is designed in Italian renaissance built in glass terra cotta in green and white, and somewhat of a departure has been made by using the maple leaf in the decoration effects.

The walls of the ground floor are in dull tints of white and green, and in each bay window between the marble pilasters hand-painted pastoral scenes have been burnt into the wall. The floor is of marble mosaic tile. The upper floor is done in old English style of Queen Elizabeth period, and the comfortable tables and chairs and careful decorations are sure to prove successful.

What are most necessary in a restaurant, clean kitchens, have been well looked after, and the kitchens having solid steel walls which make it impossible for vermin to find a way in. They have also been equipped with the latest cooking devices, and are in charge of a competent staff, and everything is of McConkey quality at popular prices.

The building is absolutely fireproof, and a foundation has been laid which will permit of nine more stories being added.

BASE HOSPITAL ATTEND SERVICE

Rev. Archdeacon Cody Paid High Tribute to Fallen Canadians.

University of Toronto Base Hospital, three hundred and thirty-eight strong, including thirty-eight doctors, seventy nurses and over two hundred men, attended service at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Bloor street, yesterday morning. The church was crowded to the doors, as several thousand people were present.

Rev. Archdeacon Cody took as his text, "The Cup Which My Father Hath Given Me, Shall I Not Drink It?" He made special reference to the severe casualties sustained by the Canadians at the front. "The terrible experience that has come to us in Canada, bringing with it sorrow and anguish to many, has made us realize the grim fact that we are at war. We have feelings of profound sorrow and sympathy for those bereaved, but with it a feeling of pride in the knowledge that our Canadian men proved themselves worthy of the finest traditions of the British race."

The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Durham, youngest daughter of the late Abel Wilcock, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 to the Necropolis. The service at the grave will be conducted by Rev.
