CENTRAL Y. FIELD DAY.

George Goulding and his club of walkers will be out for the big ten-mile handicap at the Central Y. field day on Saturday. This is the longest distance ever yet attempted by the club and the old-timers think that perhaps some who have figured well in the walks up to three miles may have to step down for others who do not so quickly get into their stride, but have the staying power. Entry blanks have been sent to clubs all over the States and a good entry is certain. The route of the walk will be up Avenue road to St. Clair, along to Keele, down to Bloor and back to the Stadium. Liberal handicaps will be given by the champion and good prizes are being put up. Any walkers who given by the champion and good prizes are being put up. Any walkers who wish to enter are requested to send in their names to Russell Williams, 40 Col-lege street, on or before Friday, June 11.
