HEAVY ENTRY LIST
FOR HORSE PARADE

Prospects Are Bright for Dominion Day's Great Spectacular Feature.

FINE BAND CONCERT

Presentation of Prizes Will Follow Return to Queen's Park.

A large number of entries have been received for the 13th annual horse parade. The children's ponies in harness and under saddle will be particularly interesting, and Hoskins avenue at the entrance of Queen's Park has been reserved for the children.

John Bright, Dominion of Canada horse stock commissioner of Ottawa, and John Boag, president of the Clydesdale Horse Association of Canada, among other prominent out-of-town horsemen, have accepted positions as judges.

Judges and marshals have been requested to report at the secretary's tent at Sir John Macdonald's monument in Queen's Park at 8.30 o'clock on Dominion Day morning in order that they may proceed to their respective classes situated in the park and the adjacent streets and complete the judging so that there may be as little delay as possible, and the parade move off promptly at 10 o'clock.

Massed Band Concert. A grand massed band concert will be rendered by the 48th Highlanders and Queen's Own bands in the lower half section of the park upon the return of the parade and during the presentation of the prizes by Mayor Church. The public are cordially invited. Everything is free, and the park is thrown open to the public for the inspection of Toronto commercial horses and equipment.

The work and objects of the Open Air Horse Parade Association are similar to the work horse parade held in Regent's Park, London, England, annually on Whit Monday. Boston claims the largest work-horse parade in America with nearly two thousand horses on exhibition, and Toronto with upwards of one thousand entries to be none the less in quality if less in numbers.

The route of the parade is as follows: Leaving the park by Hoskins avenue, going south on St. George and Beverley streets to Queen street, east on Queen to University avenue and north on the avenue into the park. A general meeting will be held on Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock at the King Edward Hotel. All judges and marshals are requested to attend.
