

shall be by leaving notice thereof in writing at the office of the Prothonotary of the Court, signed by the Respondent, six days before the day appointed for trial, exclusive of the day of leaving such notice.

XLIII

Upon such notice being left at the office of the Prothonotary of the Court, he shall forthwith send a copy thereof by the post to the Petitioner or his Agent, and to the Sheriff, who shall cause the same to be published in the Electoral Division.

XLIV

The time for applying to be admitted as a Respondent in any of the events mentioned in the 57th section of the Act shall be within ten days after such notice is given as hereinbefore directed, or such further time as the Court or a Judge may allow.

XLV

Six days before the time appointed for the trial of any Election Petition, the Petitioner shall leave with the Prothonotary, for the use of the Judge at the trial, fairly written on one side of the paper only, a copy of the Petition and of all the proceedings thereon, which show the several matters to be tried—including the particulars of objections on either side; the correctness of which copy, in so far as the proceedings are filed with the Prothonotary, shall be certified by the said Prothonotary. The Judge may allow amendment of the said copy, or in default of such copy being delivered, the Judge may refuse to try the Petition, or may allow a further time for delivery of the copy, or may adjourn the trial—in every case upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as the Judge shall see fit to impose.

XLVI

Costs shall be taxed and certified by the Prothonotary of the Court where the proceedings took place, subject to revision by one of the Judges within fifteen days.

XLVII

When the place and time for the hearing of the case and the production of evidence shall have been fixed, each of the parties shall be bound, forthwith, to elect a domicile
