

sure, that many wanderers may be guided to the narrow way that leadeth to eternal life, being brought to a knowledge of themselves as sinners, and of Christ Jesus as their Saviour, and that minister and people may so live as to "show forth the praises of Him who hath called them out of darkness into marvellous light."