

Antique crystal chandelier. Belonged to the Baby family.
Hung in the house of the Hon. Frs. Baby, at Quebec, in 1782.

Hon. Judge Baby.

Old Colonial chair. Belonged to one of Fraser's Highlanders who settled at Murray Bay, below Quebec, in 1760.

Dr. Louis Laberge.

A Louis XV chair. Belonged to the Marquis de Lotbiniere, 1740.

Mme. de B. Macdonald.

Antique sofa of the time of Governor de Vaudreuil, 1723.

Woman's Branch.

Old Canadian chair, 1780.

Hon. Judge Baby.

The arms of the Marquis de Lotbiniere in tapestry, the work of the donor.

Mme. de B. Macdonald.

Two old military chairs. Were in the Royal Engineers' Office, 1837.

W. D. Lighthall, Esq.

Antique urn, in Rhine stone, which was for a long time in the possession of the Aubert de Gaspé family.

Hon. Judge Baby.

Two brass candlesticks. Were in the house at Sorel that was for a time the residence of the Duke of Kent.

Mme. de B. Macdonald.