

Why Pay For An Uncertainty?

Why go to a tailor and take a chance? We have the clothes ready for you and you can tell at a glance whether you are suited or not. No guess work about the fit either, we fit you properly or we don't take your money.

We have an easy Price range from $10, $12, $15, $18 and up to $30, and a showing of patterns and fabrics that you will find hard to duplicate in Toronto. Every suit is kept on separate wish-bone hangers and is therefore always in shape and easy to display. Your money will be well invested if you let us fit you out this spring.

the city in our long flight with the Toronto Burial Trusts Company in our efforts and that of North Toronto to force a roadway thru Mount Pleasant Cemetery. For the last four or five years we have been wrestling with this problem and never have we had the slightest assistance of any kind whatever from the city. In my own mind and that of the other members of the York Township Council the city's criticism of last Monday's proceedings is not in good taste. All we want is a fair deal.

DEATH OF CHARLEY JAMES

The death of J. C. James, 17 Farnham-avenue, Deer Park, which took place on Wednesday, removes a former well-known and highly-respected resident of Markham Township. Mr. James, the born near Thornhill, had spent the greater part of his life near Buttorville, coming to the city about ten years ago, since which time he has largely retired from active life.

SWANSEA.

MARKHAM VILLAGE.

MARKHAM VILLAGE, April 25.—(Special.)—His Honor Judge Morgan held court here to-day, a number of cases coming up for adjudication. The most important of these was one in which Walter Hood and Mr. Grainger of Amber were sued by Orson Hemingway, a Markham farmer, for the loss of sheep thru being worried by dogs.

ANOTHER TESTIMONY TO THE WORLD DICTIONARY.

PARRY SOUND, April 22.—Circulation Dept. of The Toronto World, Toronto, Ont.—Dear sirs.—I received my Dictionary and was extremely grateful for it. I find it so beautiful and useful a volume enclosed in the parcel. The features of the Dictionary all appeal to me so much that I do not like to make any distinction. Yours truly, Louis Byrnes, Parry Sound, Ont.

ANOTHER TITANIC VICTIM.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 25.—(Special.)—It was learned here to-day that another Falls man died in the Titanic disaster. When Mrs. W. J. Doughton returned from New York, she declared her husband called on the box outside of the Mansion House yesterday, but she has heard nothing from him since receiving a letter, written the day before the Titanic sailed, stating that he would sail on the giant liner.
