facts of the case are that prices of hides were soaring all over the world, and reached undreamed of abnormal prices. Such prices were bound to stop somewhere, and they did within the last ten days or two weeks. These top quotations only lasted for a short time and were not obtained. Hides are now being offered at from 5 per cent. to 10 per cent. lower than was previously asked, but even at present figures they are abnormally high and not attractive to tanners. Leather only partially responded to the rise in prices of hides, and altho selling at high prices, has not yet been sold at prices equal to within 10 per cent. or 15 per cent. of its cost if made out of today's asking prices, which as previously skated, are now from 5 per cent. to 10 per cent. lower than last week's quotations.

The deep-seated conviction that the city of Toronto has been ignored by those who made the arrangements connected with the royal visit still exists and today representations will be made on behalf of the board of ISSUE OF WRITS control to the provincial government that an alteration be made whereby the civic address to the Prince Wales will be made at the city hall and not at the parliament buildings. This was decided on following a telegram from Sir Robert Borden that any alteration should be made thru the lieutenant-governor.

When the matter was discussed by the board of control, Controller Maguire remarked that those who had made the arrangements did not seem to understand the object of the visit of the prince. "It is to meet the common people, not a select few."

Joe Chapman, laborer, Weston, said he tried to stop the girl leaving the sidewalk but failed. The automobile

DRIVER EXONERATED FOR CHILD'S DEATH

Blanche Lenshan Ran From Behind Street Car Into Auto. A verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury at the morgue last night at an inquest on Blanche Irene Lenshan, eight years old, 43 Church street, Weston, who died following being knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Main and Church streets, Weston, on Sunday the 3rd first. The evidence went to show that the girl ran from the side-walk in front of the automobile, which the driver swore was only going at eight or ten miles an hour. Thomas Chapman, farmer, of Weston, deposed to seeing the girl dash across the road behind a street car. The next he saw of her was when she was lying on the ground behind an automobile. The driver of the lat-ter got out and picked her up.

Joe Chapman, laborer, Weston, said that struck her was traveling at a slow rate and the driver pulled up within a few feet. St. Clair McGinres, a ten-year-old boy, said that he saw the girl run in front of the car.

Frederick Arthur Rowland, salesman, Aurora, driver of the automobile, would alter entire program and in addition would be departure from procedure followed at all other provincial capitals. R. L. Borden."

Commenting on the telegram, Mayor Church pointed out that the city of Toronto's official part in the program for the reception simply consisted of the presentation of a short address of four paragraphs at
