DAMAGES FOR WOUNDED HEART.

Catharine Tichborne Wins a Verdict of Promise Suit—A Sealed Verdict in Another Case.

A sealed verdict was returned in the suit of William Henry Robinson against Firstbrook Bros., tried before Mr. Justice Rose yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff was employed in the defendants' factory, and lost his left thumb while working at a rip-saw on Aug. 9 last. He claimed $1500 damages, alleging that the machinery was defective. T. C. Robinson appeared for plaintiff, and Wallace Nesbitt, Q.C., for the defendants. Damages were assessed at $860 for the plaintiff in an action brought by Catharine Tichborne, formerly of Norwich, Oxford County, who sued William Edwards, a printer, for breach of promise. No one appeared for the defence.

The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, awarding her $860, with costs.

CHINA GIVES IN TO FRANCE

And Now Some Frenchmen Want to Make a Grab While Britain is Busy.

CHINESE OFFICIAL TO BE KILLED

For Bringing on the War—Frenchmen in Tonkin Greatly Elated.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 22.—The steamer Mombouhah brings news from Shanghai that China has acquiesced in French demands for territory at Kwang Chauwan Bay after two more Chinese defeats. China has dismissed the Viceroy of two Kwang provinces, appointing Li Hung Chang to succeed him. China also agrees to deplete the prefect who began the warfare against the French and to pay 200,000 taels indemnity to the families of the Frenchmen who were killed.

French leaders in Tonkin are greatly elated and declare that while England is busy in Africa France should extend her sphere of influence over Kwang Tung, Kwangsi and Yunnan, and demand equality with England in Szechuan. On Dec. 20 eighty French soldiers were sent into the interior to make a demonstration and prevent further native uprisings. They engaged a body of Chinese troops and fought, their way was blocked, and then surrounded them, but was driven back. One hundred natives were killed or wounded. The same week three companies of marine infantry charged Chinese regulars, killing 22 French soldiers. The Chinese then fled to the river and bombarded Canton, whereupon China yielded.

HELIGOLAND WAS ON FIRE.

The Wreck in St. Mary's Bay, Newfoundland.

St. John's, Nfld., Jan. 22.—The tug Ingraham has returned from the wreck of the Heligoland, in St. Mary's Bay.

A diver who went down found the steamer a shapeless mass of iron, sails and cordage. Her mizzenmast had been buried overboard when she struck. Her funnel probably went to the same time and her mainmast followed. Her foremast alone is now standing.

The only letters of her name now remaining are "Hel".

The coast people who first sighted the ship say she was on fire as she entered the bay, the flames being plainly visible. The tug was sent to the wreck to make a haul for the land to beach the steamer when the reef was struck.

A PASTOR'S APPEAL FOR HELP.

This Young Woman's Only Hope of Recovery is by Being Sent to Gravenhurst.

Editor World: I would like very much to bring to the attention of your numerous readers a very sad case which has come under my notice, and to appeal to them for help for the same.

The double-edged mother, both invalids, and have been so, the mother for 17 years, and the father for seven years. Their support has fallen upon their two daughters. Under the severe strain one of them has broken down with hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctor says that the only hope for her recovery is in going to the Asinchoy Home for Consumptives at Gravenhurst to have complete rest for some months. I have called on W. J. Gage, treasurer of the National Sanitarium Association, and he said that much and all as they would like to help they had no fund available for such cases.

I will require $7 a week to keep her there. I think your readers can see that, with father, mother and sister sick, and only one young woman on small wages to support them, it is impossible to send her unless help is received from outside. Mr. Gage suggested that I should let the facts be known and appeal for help. I know that there are many appeals and I hesitate to add to their number. This case seems to me so urgent. By help now, in all probability, a young woman can be saved from the "White Plague of the North," consumption, and the breadwinner spared to an invalid father and mother, who will never be able to do a stroke of work to support the family. I have been laid upon my heart to make this appeal because I know the need. Money can be sent to me at 12 Grove-street, and will be acknowledged in the paper.

HERBERT HULL WAS KILLED

While Fighting a Fire at Athens a Building Fell and Buried Him in the Ruins.

Athens, Ont., Jan. 22.—On Monday evening a fatal fire occurred in this village. A large double dwelling erected about 20 years ago by Dr. T. P. Chamberlain, Inspector of Prisons and Asylums for Ontario, and the late J. C. Miller of Parry Sound, was discovered to be on fire, and despite the strenuous efforts of the local fire brigade, it was totally consumed.

Rev. William Wright, rural dean of South Leeds, who occupied part of the building, lost many of his household effects, and Chamberlain was in the village at the time superintending some repairs to the wing, and was promptly extricated.

While the look and ladder company were leaving down a wooden annex to the building they were working at suddenly collapsed, and the workmen, named Herbert Hull, who was engaged in chopping out the studding, was buried in the promptly falling structure.
