Regarding the K. of P.

D. J. Peace, who represented the K. of P.
D. Grand Lodge of Ontario at the meeting of the Supreme Lodge at Chicago last week, has returned home. He says a great deal in the despatches sent out was untrue, and told of "the hold-up and deliver" methods of the Chicago correspondents. He says the affairs of the endownment rank are not really so bad as reported in the press, and that he doesn't believe that John H. Hinsey, ex-president of the endowment rank, is guilty of any oriminal offence or that he profited by any of the injudicious investments. The special statement will be in the hands of the lodges inside of a week, and will not be so bad as the newspapers have made out.
