STAGED LATE RALLY; NOSED OUT LEAFS

Farrell's Triple in Ninth Scored Three Runs for Hustler Win.

Special to The Toronto World. Rochester, N.Y., July 5.—With three on the base, two runs needed to tie the score and three runs to win, and one out...

Five triples and five doubles were made in the game. The first innings Jacobson scored on Altemberg's single and matters on a pass to Farrell, an infield out and Collins' long single. Neither team scored until the seventh, when Altemberg scored the former with a clean hit to right. Thompson was caught at the plate on Wendell's relay throw.

The Hustlers jumped in with three in their half. Schweitzer opened with a double. Wendell and Young singled. Schweitzer scored on the last hit. Sandberg forced Wendell at third on a bunt to Thompson. Lohman popped to Blackburne, and in the ninth the Leafs triple, scoring both runners, but was thrown out at the plate trying to stretch it into a home run.

In the eighth, Jacobson opened with a single, and Whitman belted out a screaming triple. Altemberg had popped out. Graham drove a long sacrifice fly to left, scoring Whitman. That tied the score, but in the ninth the Leafs registered two more. Blackburne began it with a triple. Lohman scored him with a single. Thompson scored on a double. Altemberg sent a fielder's choice to Rodriguez, on which Lohman scored all the way from second.

First up in the last half of the ninth, Wendell sent a hard fly to Altemberg, who dropped it after a long run. Young forced Wendell at second on a grounder to Blackburne. Sandberg hit a double to left-field fence, but fast fielding held Young at third. Doolan went in to bat for Lohman and was named, filling the bases. Then along came Farrell with his triple, cleaning up and winning a treaky game.

The official A. B. R. H. O. A. E. score: Rochester, 7; Toronto, 6. Runners caught at the plate: Altemberg, 1; Lohman, 1; Thompson, 1; Sandberg, 1; Wendell, 1; Young, 1; Doolan, 1.

At Baltimore (International)—Providence won the last of the series, beating Toronto, 15 to 10. The game was spiced by Behg in the fifth inning and forced a hit from the fifth inning and forced a hit from the fifth inning and forced a hit from the fifth inning.

At Buffalo—Buffalo and Montreal continued to divide their double-headers, the Bisons winning the first half yesterday afternoon by 2 to 1 in a pitchers' battle. Bengel went in the eighth inning of the second game when Montreal put over four runs with some lusty wallop.

At Philadelphia—Boston won the final game of the series, 6 to 0. The defeat was due to the splendid pitching of Tyler and Neff, the former retiring in the third inning, while Neff pitched his last hand striking a fast grounder off Niehoff's bat. Bancroft was put off the lead by bicycle race.
