SONG OF THE PEASANT WIFE.
BY THE MRS. HORTON.
Come Patrick, clear up the stocks on your brow;
You were kind to me once; will you from me now?
Shall the storm settle here when from heaven it departs,
And the cold from without find its way to our hearts?
No, Patrick, not surely the west stormy weather
Is easily borne, while we bear it together.
Though the rain's dropping through, from the roof
And the wind whistles free where there once was a door,
Can the rain, or the snow, or the storm wash away
All the warm vows we made in love's early day?
No, Patrick, not surely the west stormy weather
Is easily borne, if we bear it together.
When you stole out to woo me when labour was low,
And the day that was closing to us seem'd begun,
Did we care if the sunset was bright on the flowers,
Or, if we crept out, amid darkness and showers?
No, Patrick, not surely the west stormy weather
Is easily borne, while we bear it together.
Of all we could bear, if we bore it together.
Soon, soon, will these dark dreary days be gone by;
And our hearts be lit up with a beam from the sky?
Oh! let not our spirits, embittered with pain,
Be dead to the sunshine that came to us then;
Heart in hand, hand in hand, let us welcome the weather,
And, sunshine or storm, we will bear it together.

SAVED FROM DEATH!
Testimony of Mr. Nathan Mathews, a highly respectable and wealthy citizen of Newark, N. J., Dr. G. H. Halsey:—I believe your Forest Wine and Pills have been the means of saving my life.
When I commenced taking them, I had at the time a most distressing cough, and my health was fast sinking. My physicians had given me up as past cure, and my family had lost all hope of my recovery.
While in this distressing situation, your Forest Wine and Pills were procured for me, and before I had finished the first bottle of the Wine and box of Pills, I experienced great relief; my body and limbs, which were greatly swollen, became sensibly reduced. Hopes of my recovery began now to revive, and after continuing the use of your medicines for about a month, the Cough and Asthma were completely cured. The Drops, with which my life was placed in such great danger, were nearly gone. I have continued the use of your medicines until the present time, and now enjoy as perfect health as ever I did in my life, although I am now about sixty years of age.
