HIGH SCHOOLS TO GRADUATE 178

138 FROM UNION ST. BUILDING; 45, ST. VINCENT'S Names of Successful Students Are Announced Today

CLASS LEADERS Donald Fraser at S. J. H. S., Eli Tokach at Cliff Street Boys' School

ON NEXT Friday, 178 students in the three High Schools of Saint John will be graduated. There are 133 at the Union Street building, 20 at the St. Vincent School for boys, Cliff Street, and 25 at the St. Vincent School for girls, Cliff Street.

The names of the graduates and of the leaders in the several schools were announced this morning, and are here given, together with the programs of the exercises arranged for the closing hours of the school year.

HOLIDAYS will begin on next Friday and will continue, so far as the Saint John schools are concerned, until August 30.

THE full list of the graduating class of the Saint John High School, made public today by the principal, Dr. W. J. S. Myles, contains 138 names, headed by Donald B. Fraser and Miss Mildred Sage. The Grade XI honor list contains 80 names. The graduating list in 1925 contained 140 names and in the year previous 156. Dr. Myles announced that the results of the examinations for the alumnae gold medal in Grade IX, and for the Government (general) medal in Grade X, will not be known until after the return of the High School teachers from the Beaverbrook trip to England.

THE LEADERS. Donald Fraser is the son of Dr. Fraser of Hatfield's Point, but has taken his high school education at this city. He is a grandson of Wellington Green, of Winter street, and has received with his grandfather while attending school. His mother is a graduate of the Saint John High School. He has been a consistently brilliant pupil, and last year was the winner of the Governor-General's silver medal as leader of Grade IX.

Miss Sage is a daughter of Edward Sage of 147 Orange street, a member of the Telegraph-Journal's composing room staff. She went to the High School from Victoria School. Like Donald Fraser she has a consistently high record. Her mother is a graduate of the Saint John High School. Her father is a member of the staff of the Imperial Theatre, commencing at 11 o'clock on Friday morning.

THE SAINT JOHN HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES are as follows: Donald Fraser, Mildred Sage, Oscar Dreskin, Frank Wetmore, Ethel Shortliff, James Flewelling, Thronburgh Milligan, Jean Pender, Samuel Watson, William Jones, Edward Moore, Leif Goldman, Helen Ewing, Harold Williams, Harry McAleer, Thora Auld, Gladys Holder, Ferns Williams, Louise Smith, Doris Segge, Ruth Drake, Weyman Perry, Richard Humphrey, Jean Charlton, Hazel Baig, Douglas Haysman, Margaret Hayward, Ada Holtzman.

PIT BOYS STRIKE No. 14 Colliery, New Waterford, Idle on Account of Two Discharged

GLACE BAY, N. S., June 22.—Number 14 colliery, New Waterford, was idle today, the result of a strike among the pit boys. On Friday two boys had their lamps stopped for leaving off work before the regular hour. Saturday and Monday a number of boys refused to go to work but the mine was operated. This morning, when the boys found that their two discharged fellow workers had not been reinstated, they all returned home with the result that the mine shut down.

TRIAL IS DEFERRED CHICAGO, June 22.—To give prospective jurors time to adjust their business affairs, the sanity trial of Russell Scott, condemned Chicago murderer, was deferred yesterday until today. Scott, convicted of killing a drug clerk in a holdup, was saved from the gallows when found insane, only to be declared sane recently by a jury.

BREWSTER CHOSEN BY MAINE ELECTORS Present Governor Renominated as Republican Candidate—No Democratic Contest

PORTLAND, Maine, June 22.—Maine Republicans yesterday re-nominated Governor Ralph C. Brewer as candidate for governor in a state-wide primary in which the governor was opposed by Major Arthur L. Thayer, but at the sympathy extended to it. He called it "a magnificent evidence of civic tolerance" and an example for the entire country.

GIANT SEA ANIMAL Seen Near Ottawa

OTTAWA, Ont., June 22.—A strange looking aquatic animal, reported to be half the length of a canoe, and believed to be a giant sturgeon of a species known to abound in northern waters was seen in the Ottawa River near here last evening. It was first thought to be one of two pet alligators which escaped from Aylmer, Que., last fall, but naturalists claim an alligator could not survive a winter in a frozen river.

SUB CHASER DOOMED Ashore in Macinac Straits But Crew of 25 Believed Safe

WINDSOR, Ont., June 22.—For smuggling two cartons of cigarettes across the international boundary and for evading customs officers at the Windsor ferry dock, William Campbell, Toronto, yesterday was fined $80, including costs by Magistrate Gundy.

CAR THIEF, CORNERED, LEAPS INTO NIAGARA RIVER, AND ESCAPES

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 22.—With the car which he had just stolen wrecked in a collision with a truck, and suddenly dived down the gorge pursuing police only a few hundred yards away, a man of unknown identity appeared to have been hemmed in here yesterday when his one avenue of escape was a jump of 90 feet with the possibility of being drowned in the Niagara River.

Countess To Wed

VERA, Countess of Cathcart, is reported to be the prospective bride of Gideon Bolesvain, an American banker whose business keeps him much in London, where he is said to bear the title of "best dressed man-about-town." Bolesvain met the countess in New York at the opening of her play, "Ashes of Love." Here with it one of the first photographs of the Countess and her fiance together.

AMENDMENT OF CENSURE LIKELY LATE TONIGHT

SPEECHES EXPECTED TO BE STRENUOUS AND BRIEF

MERCIER OPENS

POSSIBILITY OF MOTION BY PROGRESSIVES MAY USE PRESENT CALCULATIONS

OTTAWA, June 22.—The stage is all set for the debate on the report of the customs probe, which opens in the House this afternoon. Keenest interest in political circles is manifested in the probable outcome of the discussion, but while the debate promises to be one of the most strenuous of the session, it is expected to be brief. Should the sitting be extended after midnight, the vote on the Conservative amendment of censure, to be moved by Hon. H. H. Stevens, who made the charges, probably may be taken some time tomorrow morning.

WARD'S WIFE IN DEBATE

YANCOUVER, B. C., June 22.—Magistrate Shaw, in police court yesterday, sentenced L. H. Ward, convicted on a statutory charge, to serve five years imprisonment in the penitentiary at New Westminster. Ward was the central figure in the recent identification test that followed his denial that he had ever been convicted on a similar count in Regina. Finger prints and a scar on his face were submitted as positive identification. The accused, however, admitted serving a term in Alberta on a statutory charge.
