HAMPTON TUXIS SQUARE LEADS ALL CANADA

Are Winners of Both Dominion and Provincial Shields

Came Out First in Contest Against Sixty-Four Competitors — Jack Angevine Leads the List.

In the Tuxis national athletic contest for the Dominion shield, which was run off in the Y. M. C. A. some few weeks ago, the Hampton Tuxis Square team won out by an average of 882 points. This contest was held all over Canada at the same time, each district holding a contest, and the averages of the winners taken and compared with the several districts taking part. There are sixty-five Tuxis squares in Canada, nine being in St. John and one in Hampton. At the time of the contest in this city the Y. M. C. A. officials declared that the work of the Kings county shire-town boys was worthy of most favorable comment and the prospects were that they would win the Dominion championship. The Hampton lads were somewhat elated a few days ago to learn that they had been awarded the Dominion shield for being the best Tuxis square in Canada, as well as the New Brunswick shield for the championship in this province. Much credit is due the lads for the interest they have taken in the work and their efforts have been amply rewarded, as it is considered their victory is worthy of note, since sixty-five squares took part in the contest. The following give the names of the competitors, age, weight and total points made by each:

Jack Angevine	17	148	482

Ned Crandall	17	127	386
L. Parlee	17	122	340

A Word or Two to Those Who Are About To Furnish a New Home

Furnishing the home involves a very important responsibility. It involves the creation of an environment which through the years to come is going to impress itself upon the very lives and natures of the family.

So in the selection of home furnishings there is more than comfort, more than economy at stake; there is the cultural, refining influence to be considered, for the atmosphere in which we live certainly does influence our personalities.

Surely such a responsibility should at least be shared with a recognized authority. Everett places such helpfulness at your disposal. You may feel free at any time to come here and consult with men who are by virtue of long and specialized training qualified authorities on home furnishing. Their helpfulness adds nothing to the cost, but insures the fullest measure of satisfaction in any purchase you may make, whether it involves ten dollars or ten hundred.

This store always invites critical comparison of values.
