*At Toronto, Wednesday, the Fifteenth Day of September,
One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Seven Years:*

The which Day, the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, met, according to adjournment, and was constituted with prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday were read and approved of.

The Synod had a meeting, as arranged, last night, with the members of the Deputation from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, now present, which was occupied in mutually giving and receiving information, in regard to the condition and prospects of the Church, and in friendly conference as to the various means to be employed in advancing the well being of the Church in Canada.

The Address to Her Majesty the Queen was signed by the Moderator, in presence of the Synod; and the Synod directed it to be transmitted through His Excellency the Governor General. The Address is as follows:—

Unto the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY:—

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, in Synod assembled, beg leave to convey to Your Majesty, renewed assurances of our undiminished attachment to Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Enjoying, as we do, under Your Majesty's just and benignant sway, the inestimable blessings of civil and religious liberty, and perfect freedom in the exercise of all our spiritual and ecclesiastical duties, we take this opportunity of expressing our grateful sense of those benefits which, as subjects of Your Majesty, we possess.

We confidently rely on Your Majesty's protection and countenance while engaged in the important and deeply interesting work of instructing, in the great principles of Religion and Morality, the people whom Divine Providence has committed to our spiritual care.

That the best of Heaven's blessings may be plentifully poured out upon Your Royal Person, upon the Prince Albert, the Prince of Wales, and all Your Royal Offspring;—that the Crown may long flourish upon

Your head;—
