The appointment is a very popular the province is sorry to lose him from the provincial court. There is no question as to his ability to do honor to the province from which he goes.

Among the legal men of British Co- minion. lumbia none have had a more brilliant career than has Mr. Justice Duff. Without the least disparagement to the Island trial in 1901. He was also selected members of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, it can be said that alpointed to the bench there was none whose judgments were accepted by the profession as better than those of Mr.

He was born in Meaford, Ont., in 1865, being the son of the late Rev. Chas. Duff, a prominent clergyman in the Congregational church. He graduated in Arts from Toronto University, taking the degree of B.A. in 1888, and that of LL.B. in the following year.

During his course in the University he had a brilliant scholastic career, graduating with first class honors in mathematics and metaphysics. He was also president of the literary society during one of his years, and was a Barrie. prize winner in public speaking.

While practicing law Mr. Duff had an enviable reputation as a pleader. He represented the province in the Deadman's famous inquiry into the affairs connected with the Columbian & Western land subsidy in 1903. In the same year he appeared as one of the counsel representing 1904 he appeared also as counsel for Edna

In all these cases Mr. Duff distinguished himself and showed his capability to appear with credit among the best legal talent in the Empire.

Mrs. Duff has, like her husband, been popular in this city during their residence here. She is the daughter of Henry Bird, Ont., and was married to Mr
