ADMIRAL JELlicoe VISITS REGINA

Never has the home of the government of Saskatchewan welcomed a more illustrious or more honored guest than the man who received the acclamations of the assembly on Saturday night under Navy League auspices. Admiral of the Fleet Viscount Jellicoe, R.N., O.M., G.C.B., G.C.V.O., has become a very real personage to a couple of hundred Reginites, who, through the kind offices of the Regina Navy League, had the pleasure of meeting him and the most attractive of surroundings, and of hearing of the magnitude of the British navy's performance during the years of the war from the lips of the man most qualified to tell of it.

Lady Jellicoe is accompanying her husband on his journey across Canada to the Dominion capital, and the party includes also Lieut. Nelles and Lieut. Morgan, staff officers, and Admiral Kingsmill, of Ottawa.

VACCINATE AND PROTECT YOURSELVES AGAINST SMALL POX

The city medical health officer is strongly urging upon all citizens the advisability of protecting themselves and their families from the risk of small pox by the use of vaccination, in view of the fact that the disease is prevalent in some sections of the country.

Dr. Bow pointed out that while the epidemic in Toronto appears to be abating, a considerable number of cases have been discovered in Quebec, and recently an outbreak was reported from Eastern, in this province. He urged the importance of vaccination as a preventative, more especially in view of the fact that at this time of the year a disease is readily carried on account of the amount of travelling which is being done.

DANGER OF COAL SHORTAGE OVER

"If this mild weather continues there need be no fear of any coal shortage in Regina, provided conditions continue to exist as they are today," said one of the big coal dealers of the city a few days ago when asked concerning the possibility of a shortage here. He stated his opinion was that chances for a full supply of fuel were never better, as the reserve supply was getting larger every day and coal had been given the right-of-way over everything on the railways.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 big game licenses have been issued this year by the game branch of the Saskatchewan department and approximately twenty-five per cent more than last year at this time.

Although a considerable increase in the number of licenses has been recorded, Mr. Bradshaw is receiving daily wires asking for further supplies indicating that big game hunting will be a popular pastime this fall.

The increase as compared with last year is partly attributable to the fact that the influenza epidemic deterred many from going out during the 1918 season and partly to the return of the soldiers, many of whom first became acquainted with the use of the rifle in the training camps and the trenches.

Manitoba

LARGE PACKS OF WOLVES ARE ACTIVE

THE PAS, Man. — Large packs of wolves are roving throughout the north in search of the caribou herds, say incoming trappers. Though not ravenous the packs follow dog trains for a long distance without seriously menacing the teams. At Herb Lake a pack of thirty-five was seen on the trail of moose and trappers gave chase and got seven of them. At Spirit Lake the Indians report they have killed sixty on the outskirts of The Pas, small packs of eight to sixteen have been seen. The Indians and old-time trappers believe that the presence of so many wolves, close to the settlements, indicates a long and bitter cold winter in the north.

WHERE COLDS STRIKE

The throat, breathing passages and lungs are the weak spots at which colds strike. And these are the very organs most difficult to treat, because only a breathable remedy is capable of reaching the trouble lodged there. Peps provide a breathable remedy, and their superiority over remedies which are swallowed into the stomach is therefore obvious. For convenience, this breathable remedy is condensed into tablet form. To take the treatment, merely dissolve Peps in your mouth and the medicinal vapor that is released is carried by the breath to the remotest parts of the breathing passages and lungs, healing, soothing and strengthening every part with which it comes in contact. At the same time, by destroying all disease germs, these medicinal fumes prevent the development of colds, coughs and serious chest troubles.

Carry Peps with you, and when you go from an overheated building to the bitter cold outdoors, put a pastille in your mouth. Also as a protection against germs, keep a Peps in your mouth, when breathing the impure air of a crowded theatre or store.

For colds, asthma, or chest troubles, which have already developed, Peps are equally invaluable also for bronchitis, sore throat, laryngitis, etc. All dealers, 50c. box.
