A number of St. John people left on the pilgrimage to the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. Father Maloncy, C. S. S. R. went along as the representa-tive of Bishop Casy, At Moncton the excursion was augmented by a large number of pilgrims.

Although the Allan liners did not bring their turbiners to this port last season, the line have apparently no intention of giving this port the slip during the next winter season as their new schedule of sailings includes the large passenger steamer Corsican, the latest addition to their fleet, as using
