THE Working Man,

Especially the man that works in the foundry, the mill, on-board of ships or on the farm, needs footwear that has lasting qualities. All our Men's Working Boots are solidly built of leathers that are as near wear-resisting as it is possible to get. The great trouble with so many medium priced boots is that a certain amount of shoddy is used in making them. We pay an extra price in order to get all solid leather, and with all that we sell them cheaper than the other kind. Let us prove our statement by selling you the next pair you need.

CANOEISTS RESCUED BY CREW OF TOW BOAT

Craft Discovered Bottom up With Men Clinging to It

Yesterday, when the Raddock tug Joseph reached Indian town, she landed a canoe and two druggled young men who, although they did not present an enviable appearance to the eye of the spectator, had yet great cause for self-congratulation. The names of the pair cannot be published, for they refused to reveal their identity even to the crew of the tug. The men aboard the Joseph gathered from the conversation of the two, however, that one of them was a teacher in a city school.

As the tug was coming through Grand Bay, those on board her observed a canoe with two occupants making good headway by means of an improvised sail consisting of a coat fastened upon an oar placed upright in the bow of the canoe. They watched the craft for a little, but when it crossed their stern, dismissed it from their minds.

Some time later Louis Akerley, cook of the Joseph, who had been looking about, asked, "Where is the canoe?"

Their attention attracted, the tugboat men made out the canoe a quarter of a mile away, bottom up. The little craft was beyond hearing distance, but the two paddlers, who were in its bottom, were holding up the oar which they had been using as a mast.

A boat was put out from the Joseph and the canoeists were brought aboard. The crew of the tug treated the unfortunates well, but the latter would not make known their names. One of them was fearful lest the "scholars get hold of it." Landed at Indian town, the teacher and his fellow shouldered their canoe and made up over the hill.

ALLANS TO REMOVE THEIR HEADQUARTERS

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—The reorganization of the Allan Line will include in the near future the changing of the headquarters of the company to Montreal. This means the registration of the vessels of the company under the Canadian flag. There are thirty vessels, with a tonnage of about 160,000 tons.

"Father," said little Rollo, "what is appendicitis?"

"My son," answered the cynical parent, "appendicitis is something that enables a good doctor to open up a man's anatomy and remove his entire bank account."

DR. WILSON TO FORM A ST. JOHN BRANCH

Professor of Greek at John Hopkins University Reaches
Here Today.

Dr. Harry L. Wilson, professor of Greek at John Hopkins University, will arrive in the city this afternoon from Halifax, where he was instrumental in bringing about the formation of an institute of archaeology. Tomorrow evening Dr. Wilson will lecture in the Natural History Society rooms, under the auspices of the Canadian branch of the Archaeological Institute of America. The subject of his discourse is to be Recent Discoveries in Rome.

There will be no admission fee, and all those interested in the subject of archaeology are cordially invited to attend. At the conclusion of the lecture Prof. Wilson will form a St. John branch of the Archaeological Institute of America. Already nearly fifty persons have signified their willingness to become members of the association, which is very encouraging to the professor and the other promoters.

OLD EARL WINS RICH N.Y. WIDOW FOR SON

Fires Her Imagination by Recital of Advantages

Blazes the Way—Woman Doesn't Know Yet That Her Fiance Owe $1,500,000.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Mrs. William Hayes Chapman, the wealthy young widow from New York, had just become engaged to Lord Arthur George K. Falconer, son and heir of Lord Kintore.

Mrs. Chapman's late husband was the well-known multi-millionaire who died last year, leaving his vast fortune, estimated at more than $5,000,000, to his wife. They had been married only eighteen months, and devoted was the venerable husband to his girl-wife, young enough to be his grandchild, that he made a deed of gift of all his property to her, rather than trust it to a will, which might be contested by his relatives.

The most notable part of her new betrothal is that Lord Falconer did his wooing by proxy. The spokesman was the Earl of Kintore, his father. That aged nobleman met Mrs. Chapman at Aix-les-Bains, where she was taking the cure. He was immensely taken with the slim, dark-eyed beauty, and concluded that she would be a suitable bride for his son and heir.

The earl of Kintore began the courtship by showing Mrs. Chapman's photograph to Lord Falconer. When Mrs. Chapman came to Paris the earl followed, all the time wooing her ardently on behalf of his son. He told her that Lord Falconer was the best partidge shot in England, thinking that would appeal to the lady. He urged that she would be the eleventh countess of Kintore and capped the climax of his proxy courtship by saying to Mrs. Chapman that if wedded to his son, she would be one of the court ladies of Queen Alexandra of England.

When Mrs. Chapman's imagination was thus fired, Lord Falconer was brought over from the Scottish Moors to Paris.

So successfully had the old earl wooed the rich American widow on behalf of his son, that the marriage was arranged in a few days.

The fact that Lord Falconer has debts amounting to $1,500,000 has not yet been disclosed to his happy fiancée.

DROWNED IN SIGHT OF HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 21.—Harold Graves, the seventeen year old son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Graves, was drowned in Knapelung stream shortly before 7 o'clock to-night before a crowd of 500 people who were powerless to aid him. He was sitting on the rail of Central street bridge when a portion of the railing broke and he tumbled into the stream, thirty feet below. The stream at this point is in the form of a canal, and the smooth granite abutments, in which the custom house is built, offers no chance for a hold. The young man tried hard to find some crevice into which he could thrust his fingers to hold him up, but he could not, and being unable to swim, soon sank. Lar dere, ropes and boats were on hand within a couple of minutes of his disappearance, but it was too late. His body was immediately recovered.

STURGIS DEPUTIES HAVE A TOUGH TIME IN BANGOR

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 21.—Five Sturgis deputies raided a saloon in Pickering Square tonight, kept by Arthur M. and Frank S. Cox, and during the excitement Deputy Benjamin Towne of Waterville was assaulted by one of the proprietors. After a brief fight both Cox were handcuffed together and led through the streets to the police station, followed by a crowd of 300, who hoisted the deputies and hosed and started to throw missiles. Sergeant Smith, at the head of a squad of patrolmen, charged the crowd and the hostile demonstration stopped, but it stood in front of City Hall for fully half an hour and only lacked a leader to work it into a mild riot against the enforcement committees who are here. The Cox were admitted to bail, after being arraigned before a bail commissioner, charging them with assault. Jail was fixed at $200 and the case will be heard by Judge Harding in police court Wednesday morning.

FARMERS ATTACKED BY DROVE OF PIGS

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 21.—Charles Carter and his hired man, James R. Hoskin, were attacked by a drove of pigs that they were driving to market near Chilliwack, B. C., Saturday, and Hoskin was knocked down, and goaded by an animal's tusks. He died yesterday from loss of blood and shock. He was twenty-five years old, son of a minister of Cresswell, Mansfield, England, and a recent arrival in the country.

Before Chief Justice Falconbridge at Brockville today, the jury acquitted Miss Grace Henderson, cashier of the Thousand Islands Railway, of several charges of theft from the company. It was shown that the shortages in the books were caused by amounts loaned to other officers of the company on I. O. U's. The jury added a rider that the young lady should be recompensed for injuries sustained.

CHECKING THE GREAT WHITE PLAGUE

The executive of the St. John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis at its regular meeting in the Board of Health rooms yesterday afternoon decided to have Dr. Porter of Toronto lecturer for the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, lecture in St. John during the first week in October. The exact date on which the lecture will be given and the building in which it will be given have not yet been decided upon, but will be at an early date.

The executive also decided to issue a circular which will be distributed among the citizens of St. John for the purpose of making them acquainted with the aims of the association and inviting co-operation. It will be pointed out that the association is a popular body and not an exclusively medical society. Attention will be called to the intention of the association, when it becomes sufficiently wealthy, to maintain a district nurse and finally to establish a dispensary.

Those present at yesterday's meeting were: Dr. Daniel, chairman; Dr. Mevin, secretary; Miss Grace Leavitt, Mrs. D. McLaughlin, Thos. Gorman, Dr. Skinner, Dr. Kenney and Dr. McLaughlin.

RABBI WILL OFFICIATE

CHATHAM, N. B., Sept. 21.—Rabbi Amiel of St. John arrived here today and will officiate this evening at the marriage of Miss Sarah E. Hich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hich, to Louis Fern of Grand Falls. Much interest is taken in the event, for which one hundred and fifty invitations have been issued.

EXPO. LAUNCHED ON A FLOOD OF ORATORY

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Sept. 21.—The provincial exhibition was launched today on a flood of high class oratory from Sir Louis Davies, Premier, the new U. S. consul, and others. The beauty and fertility of the agricultural capacity of the Island were the chief themes of eloquence. Inside exhibits are fewer than usual, the live stock is good, especially draft horses, dairy cattle is up to the standard, but there is a falling off in beef cattle. There are no outside exhibits. The races were fast and exciting, though the condition of the track was poor. Barring Grace Abbott, owned by Dodd Dwyer, Pictou, the entries were all provincial. Tom Trim, owned by H. S. Brown, took the 235 class in three straight heats. Grace Mac, owned by Hooper of Charlottetown, was second; Grace Abbott third; King Braglion, owned by Fred Walsh, Tyron, fourth. Time, 2:27, 2:29, 2:27.

There were eight starters in the three-year-old class, which was won by Orwell Belle, owned by John Roddy, Orwell Cove; Kandoll, R. H. Stevens, Charlottetown, second; Helen C. Duncan Robertson, North River, third; Commodore Wilkes, Dr. Strickland, Charlottetown, fourth. Time, 2:35, 2:38, 2:30, 2:30.

NORTH SHORE WEDDING

NEWCASTLE, N. B., Sept. 21.—The marriage of Rowland Waldo Crocker and Miss Rita May Sinclair, daughter of the late Walter J. Elliott, was solemnized tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Cousins performed the ceremony at the bride's home. The couple were unattended. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, John Robinson, Jr. The marriage took place under a host of white chrysanthemums. The bride was dressed in white tulle with a train. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, sweet peas and maiden hair ferns. The bride's niece, little Rita Atkinson, dressed in white silk, trimmed with insertion and lace, carried a basket of sweet peas. Owing to recent deaths in both families, the wedding was quiet. The couple left on the Maritime express for a honeymoon in Europe.

REV. DR. SHEARER URGES CLOSER CONNECTION

QUEBEC, Sept. 21.—The delegates of the Labor Congress settled right down to work this morning and struck the various standing committees for the convention. Much interest was evinced in the reading of the report of Mr. W. R. Trotter, British agent, with regard to misrepresentation in Great Britain. Mr. Trotter quoted statistics showing the exact condition of British immigration, and said that the work and efforts of the Dominion Congress were misconstrued in the British Isles.

At the termination of Mr. Trotter's report, the Rev. Dr. Shearer, secretary of the Social and Moral Reform Association of Canada, was called upon to speak. He congratulated the convention on having in their midst a minister of labor, and in the course of his speech emphasized the fact that there should be a closer connection between labor organizations and the church.
