

KING EDWARD. His Majesty Continues to Show Steady Improvement. No Incident on Saturday and Sunday Calculated to Cause Uneasiness.

It is expected the doctors will be able to announce today that all danger of any complications has passed. The very latest bulletin.

LONDON, June 23.—Last night passed with few incidents, and there were fewer watchers outside Buckingham Palace than any other night since the operation, the public apparently having accepted the official announcement that King Edward had passed the point of immediate danger.

The bulletin issued this morning at 9 o'clock was not expected until 10 o'clock, consequently the few persons who were passing in the neighborhood of the palace were the only ones attracted to the announcement.

LONDON, June 23.—Buckingham Palace has worn a gay appearance today than for a week past and the constant coming and going of royalty and streams of carriages bore testimony to the feeling of increased confidence that the King would recover.

LONDON, June 23.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says that Queen Alexandra has invited the deputation of Danish Hussars to return to London at the end of September for the coronation of the King.

LONDON, June 23.—The czar with his wife and children, accompanied by the Russian fleet, started for home today. The fleet at St. Petersburg has been ordered to disperse Monday morning.

LONDON, June 23.—King Edward's physicians announced at twenty minutes of ten tonight that the royal patient's progress was entirely satisfactory. No further bulletins will be issued tonight.

LONDON, June 23.—The following official bulletin regarding the King's condition was issued from Buckingham Palace at 11 o'clock tonight: "The King has passed a comfortable day and his strength has been well maintained. The wound occasionally causes discomfort."

LONDON, June 23, 9.45 a. m.—The Duke of Connaught drove to Buckingham Palace at half past nine this morning, and after a short visit, repeated the gratifying report: "The King has had natural sleep. He is comfortable, and his condition is satisfactory."

CANADIAN SOLDIERS. On Their Way Home From South Africa.

Officers and Men of Second Contingent Mounted Rifles Sailed June 27th. A Full List of Those Returning—Others Will Stay at Port Natal Till Next Steamer Sails.

OTTAWA, June 23.—The official announcement that the officers and men of the second contingent Canadian Mounted Rifles were on their way home from South Africa came to the Governor General in a despatch from Port Natal. The men sailed on June 27th on the troopship Winifred.

The first lot of these men sailed from Halifax on January 14, 1902, on the steamer Manhattan, the second lot on the Victorian on Jan. 23, and ten additional men went to Cape Town on the troopship Parthenia on March 25th.

The King was very cheerful this morning, after four or five hours' sleep, and his temperature was normal. On Sunday his majesty will probably be transferred from his bed to a couch, where he will be able to recline.
