NEWS SUMMARY.

Demotion.
—The election in Kent Co., N. B., is fixed for Dec. 6th.

—Thanksgiving day was generally observed in Ottawa. The weather was beautiful with good sleighing.

—The young people of Winnipeg celebrated Thanksgiving day by skating on the Red River, which is frozen over much earlier than usual.

—The village of Canning, N. S., is to have a system of water-works. A company has been formed and the necessary laying of the pipes will be commenced early next spring.

—The mills in and about St. John are, with one or two exceptions, still running, and it looks as if they will continue in operation for some time. There is an ample supply of logs for the mills which saw all winter and for the early spring sawing.—Sun.

—It is said a creamery is to be established at Canard, on the Cornwallis Valley branch railway. Excellent opportunities for such an enterprise are offered in that locality, it being the very heart of some of the best dyke lands in Nova Scotia, where splendid pasturage is available.

—It is announced that the Canadian Pacific Railway will extend its line from Regina, N. W. T., to a point on the Canadian border where it will connect with the Soo line to be extended from Valley City, North Dakota. This will form the shortest route to the Pacific coast from St. Paul.

—On Nov. 7 the Sussex butter factory commences operations under J. E. Hopkins, dairy superintendent of the staff of Prof. Robertson, dairy commissioner for the Dominion. A Masson power butter worker has been put in, and when the other improvements are completed the factory will be able to make the finest creamery butter.

—In order to push immigration the Canadian Pacific Railway is sending delegates selected from among the farmers of Manitoba and the Territories to all European countries to urge their countrymen to emigrate to the Canadian Northwest. Mr. Hamilton, land commissioner, leaves for Europe to-day to push immigration matters.

—The railways of Canada, acting in conference, have decided that on and after 14th November, inst., they will make a charge for collecting, and a like charge for delivering freight at all stations where they have hitherto performed this service, of one and a quarter cents per hundred pounds on freight in first, second, third and fourth classes, in addition to their published tariff rates.

—The Truro News says: A flock of geese belonging to H. E. McNutt, Lower Village, that is in the habit of feeding in the bay, a few weeks ago was accompanied home by a wild goose that has remained with the flock ever since and is quite tame. It goes into the barn at night with the flock; one of its wings has now been clipped to prevent its flying away.

—An Ottawa despatch says: Mr. Billings, of the public works department, who has just returned from Greece, says the boilers for the steam disinfectors are now on the island, and the finishing touches to the other parts of the machinery are now being given at Levis and they will be removed to the island in a few days. The buildings to contain the disinfectors are nearly completed.

—It is announced that Governor Royal, of the Northwest, has been instructed from Ottawa to take action in regard to the dead-lock in the Northwest assembly immediately after the election in Wallace constituency. Should Ininger be returned Premier (Aytey will be in a minority of two, and should McNutt be elected the parties will be evenly divided. It is understood that if Ininger is victorious the governor will call the legislature together at once, but if he is defeated the governor will immediately bring on the general election.

—An Ottawa despatch of the 10th inst. contains the following: Hon. Mr. Patterson, secretary of state, visited the house of commons this afternoon while the civil service examinations were in progress. Addressing the candidates he expressed pleasure at seeing so many ladies writing. It was more and more evident that women were perfectly competent for many classes of work which had hitherto been monopolized by the other sex. He cautioned the male candidates not to aspire to the employment in the civil service with the view of spending an easy life.

—The annual reception of the pupils and teachers of the St. John School of Music and Education was held Friday evening at the school rooms on Princess street, and proved a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. A large number were present and thoroughly enjoyed the excellent entertainment provided for them. The visitors were received by Miss Hitchens, Miss Alexander, Miss Ogden and the other teachers, who did all in their power to make the evening a pleasant one. Good opportunities were offered for social intercourse. A short musical and literary programme was carried out, including piano-duet, Miss Whitman and Secord's piano solo, Miss Retaillic; solos, Miss Pidgeon and Mr. Keirstead; violin solo, Miss Taylor; readings, Misses Roach and Harding. All these numbers were well rendered and heartily applauded. The singing of Miss Pidgeon and the violin playing of Miss Taylor were great treats. Miss Alexander is a master of her art and a careful, painstaking and conscientious teacher—in fact all the teachers in the School of Music are competent and efficient, and that their work is being appreciated is shown by the large increase of pupils over last year. The school is growing steadily in popular favor and is deserving of all the success it has secured. Before the entertainment closed the light refreshments were served.—Globe.

United States.
—By the collapse of a mill at Oprau, Michigan, on Wednesday, about fifty persons were caught in bricks and broken timbers. The dead bodies of twenty have been removed.

—A London despatch says: It is understood as a result of a lengthy cabinet council Nov. 11th, the British government has decided to retain possession of Uganda. The East Africa Company will withdraw in March. The British government will, it is believed, retain part of the company's organization.

—A Paris despatch of Nov. 8, says: A curious iron vessel was picked up by the police in front of the offices of the Carmaux Mining Company. It was taken to the police station and while being examined exploded with terrible force, killing two officers and fatally injuring another. It is believed to have been the work of Anarchists. The affair has caused a renewal of the fears expressed during the time of the outrages perpetrated by Ravachol and his accomplices.

—A strong Unionist attack is directed against the evicted tenants' commission, which is part of Mr. Gladstone's scheme for the betterment of affairs in Ireland. Lord Salisbury and Balfour have both publicly denounced what they term the partisanship of Justice Mathew as president of the commission, and now it is announced that Mr. Murphy, the only Unionist member of the commission, has resigned as a protest against Justice Mathew's refusing to allow Mr. Carson, the landlords' solicitor, to cross-examine witnesses who appeared before the commission at its first sitting, which examined into evictions on the Clontarf estate. Strong efforts will be made by the opposition to prevent any Unionist taking the place made vacant by Murphy's withdrawal.

—The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouchsafed by thousands of people whom it has cured.

Literary Notes.
The November number of the New England Magazine is a Whittier number. The frontispiece is from a rare photograph of the poet taken about 1855, and the opening article takes the reader in and about the New England country, which is familiar to many of Whittier's poets, and is so associated with him as a man. It is by William Sloane Kennedy, whose monograph of Whittier was so well received. Another article deals with Whittier as poet and man, and is by Frederick Spalding. Allan Eastman Cross contributes a fine poem, "The passing of Whittier." Mr. Edwin D. Mead, the chief editor of the magazine, deals with Whittier's life, work and influence in his Editor's Table. The articles are finely illustrated throughout.

The November number of the Cottage Journal fully realizes the Thanksgiving season in its pages. A handsome frontispiece is created by illustrating a part of J. G. Whittier's poem, "The Pumpkin." Elder Lealand's Ghost is the title of Hezekiah Butterworth's capital Thanksgiving story. The Silver-Buckale Slipper is a story of "eye olden times," by Samantha C. Merrill. Annie Isabel Willis, in her story of Grandpa Grace's Thanksgiving, gives us an exceptionally good tale. These are all stories of special merit, and together with Whittier's second paper suggestive of a time, make an unusually interesting number. The regular departments offer a wealth of interesting matter, notably Household Chats, under Mrs. Mary A. Hungerford's direction. Handsome and pleasing illustrations abound. (W. A. Wilde & Co., Boston, Mass.)

The Homiletic Review for November contains much helpful material for those engaged in ministerial work. President Merrill E. Gates, of Amherst, writes on "The Christian a Trustee." F. Burr, D.D., the well-known author of Ecce Coelum, writes on "Astronomy as a Religious Helper." Dr. William H. Ward, of the Independent, tells of The Latest Palestine Discoveries. N. S. Burton, D. D., of Needham, Mass., brings out the parabolic nature of the Miracles of Christ, and Messrs. B. Thomas continue the series of articles on Denominational Federation. The Sermonic Section is especially rich in its contents. A practical article on How to See Europe, Egypt and Palestine on Two Dollars a Day, is contributed by Camden M. Cohen, Ph. D., to the Miscellaneous Section. The Funk & Wagnall Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York, are the publishers.

The Arena for November will challenge the interest of all thoughtful people. One of the ablest educational papers of the year is found in this number, the review of the pen of Professor J. R. Buchanan, the author of "New Education" and many scientific works. Professor Buchanan discusses the practical application of the new education in a masterly manner. A paper of peculiar interest is that of the late Dr. A. A. Phelps, an all lover of American Literature, is entitled "The West in Literature," by Hamlin Garland. It is probably the ablest essay Mr. Garland has yet written. Rev. M. J. Savage discusses in a critical and interesting manner the "Present Status and Theories of Psychological Research." A very valuable and timely paper is given by Dr. Henry Sheffield on "Practical Suggestions as to the Treatment of Cholera." Dr. Henry A. Hart, of New York, discusses "Alcohol in its relation to the Bible." Joaquin Miller, whose portrait forms the frontispiece of this number, contributes a ten-page poem entitled "Dawn in San Diego." It is a weird creation, but contains many lines of great beauty. Several other articles and stories contribute to make the closing number of the Arena's sixth volume one of its best.

Although the Review of Reviews does not attempt to set copies by means of sensations, its timeliness in the treatment of live topics is really sensational in the best sense of the word; and, with this understanding of what it is meant, the Review of Reviews may fairly be called a decidedly sensational magazine every month. The number for November has as its most striking sensation an article entitled "Ought Mrs. Maybrick to be Tortured to allow Mr. Carson, the public to hear a good deal about the circumstances under which Mrs. Maybrick was convicted in Liverpool, where she is now slowly dying in prison. The controversy over the case has risen almost to the dignity of an official international question. Mr. Stead, the English editor of the Review of Reviews, has undertaken to investigate the matter, and comes out with a strong article, taking the American side of the case. He holds that the American public is condemned on insufficient evidence, and that her treatment is a scandal upon the name of English justice. Mrs. Maybrick is a young American woman, highly connected in this country, and her case has been a sensation in this country. Mr. Blaine and all the leading people at Washington.

The Treasury of Religious Thought for November is, like all its predecessors, rich in matter for all readers, but especially adapted to preachers and Christian teachers. A sermon by Dr. A. T. Henson on the Three Leavens will be earnestly read, as also the two following sermons by Drs. Alger and Hallock and the Communion Sermon by Rev. C. H. Ricketts. Prof. Shodde discusses "The Unity of the Scriptures"; Prof. M. S. Terry gives a critical comment on "The Song of Songs"; Prof. Hunt pays a tribute in verse to J. G. Whittier. The Dangerous Encroachments of Romanism and Gambling, by Dr. Gifford, are treated in the Questions of the Day. Lovable Christians are described by Dr. Cuyler, and many excellent thoughts are given in several articles for pastoral work and home life. The Bible in France and the Old and New in Russia should be read by lovers of missions. "A Survey of Christian Progress," beautiful and illustrative thoughts, with review of books and Periodicals, are excellent. The editorials are suggestive and timely, on the Cultured Indefinity, Serve it up Warm, Commemorative Services, Church and Christianity, Comparative Religions, etc. Yearly subscription, $2.50; clergyman, $2; single copies, 25 cents. E. B. Treat, publisher, 5 Cooper Union, New York.

She leaves two sons and one daughter and many friends to mourn their loss.

VICKERY.—At South Ohio, Oct. 31st, of neuralgia of the heart, Martha, beloved wife of J. C. Vickery, aged 61 years. The summons was sudden and unexpected, no time was given for a parting word. While talking with a near relative some time before he died he said, "I ought to get our work all done by Saturday noon, and have the balance of the day to prepare for the Sabbath." His remains were interred in the cemetery at Tremont November 1. Much sympathy is felt for the widow and the fatherless, but God can and will sustain.

SPINNEY.—At Central Argyll, Oct. 27, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Edith Spinney, aged 65 years. Sister Spinney has been a member of the Argyll Baptist church for many years. In her death our church has sustained a great loss. Every one in Argyll united in sympathizing with the afflicted family. First a son, then a daughter, and now the mother have fallen victims to the deadly fever, while the father is slowly recovering. Bro. and Sister Spinney have had thirteen children; eight survive their mother; five are members of Baptist churches.

PECK.—At Hopewell, Sept. 26, Nancy, relict of Albert Peck, aged 72 years, Sister Peck was a member of Hopewell church, and was esteemed by the community in which she lived. During the last year of her life her health began to give way. She was faithfully cared for by a loving daughter during months of weariness and watchfulness. Our sister was perfectly resigned to her situation and patiently bore all with Christian fortitude until her last. She leaves several children and a large circle of acquaintances to cherish her memory. A large gathering attended her funeral, when appropriate services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. B. N. Hughes, and her remains were interred in the old resting place of the older inhabitants.

HALL.—At Burlington, Sept. 23, of diphtheria, Vera May, aged 4 years, youngest daughter of Albert and Ruth Hall. Thus the morning flowers are taken away. Oct. 14, of the same illness, died the oldest son of Albert and Ruth Hall. On Sabbath morning his place was filled in the house of the Lord. He went home and was stricken down with that dread disease, and after five days of suffering he called his friends to his side and bid them farewell, and told them he was going home to be with the Lord. His last words were, "Prepare to meet me in Heaven." Though he had never made a public profession he was a good boy, well respected in the community by old and young.

ADAMSON.—At Little Glace Bay, Cape Breton, of typhoid fever, Oct. 24, James D. Adamson, aged 35 years, leaving a wife and two children with many friends and relatives to mourn their sad loss. This faithful brother united with the Baptist church at Little Glace Bay some eight years ago, during the labors of Rev. D. G. McDonald, since which time till his last illness, he remained an earnest Christian worker, always ready to bear his part in that which was for the benefit of the church and the salvation of precious souls. In the Sunday-school his ability as superintendent and teacher was known and prized, and his class gave due attention to his instructions. By the death of our brother the church sustains a very great loss and they feel it keenly. May the Lord raise up others to take his place. His funeral took place on Wednesday following, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Forbes (Presbyterian), and the pastor of the church to which he belonged, when a large number of people from all denominations assembled to pay him their last token of respect.

THE CHRISTIAN MESSENGER
VOLUME LV.
Vol. VIII., No. 4

—THE November number of the Bema, the monthly publication by the students of St. Mark's, and printed by Mr. George John, is received. It is well as a memorial of the past, as a fine quality of paper, leatherette covers. Its contents are of interest which belongs to its class, and it is creditable to the institution.

—A PART of the Whittier in East Parish has been purchased by Mr. J. H. Carleton, of Halifax, and presented to the city to be as a memorial of the poet. The purchase includes the house and buildings, with several acres adjoining to them. The agreement was made toward property by the Whittier City year ago, and the poet is now been pleased with the idea.

—It will be seen that a confidential meeting of November 18th was an attempt to have a meeting of those who were separate Convention. We have heard no satisfactory answer to the plan—if there was any the circulars were sent out, it is only just to say that, there is no reason to suppose any general collusion between those whose names were on the circular to prevent the meeting a representative one.

—At the request of the Gazette a number of eminent men have expressed their reference to the desirability of the poet-laureate. The Shakespearean scholar, the laureate should end son; but others, as for example, Huxley, Prof. Max Muller, Sir John Lubbock, Prof. B. C. Blake holds that the laureate should be continued as even the highest person in the public notice of the highest the human soul.

—It is gratifying to observe movement of our ministers westward. The Halifax press has been congratulated on having persuaded two excellent men, G. McDonald and A. C. Chute, and cast in their lots with the sea, bringing with them, doubt, abundant experience and ability for successful work. church, too, is congratulated having been able to fill it by drawing on the resources. We wish for all these brethren churches which they serve and blessing.

—BISHOP WARREN, Lecturer before the students of Boston on "The Bible in Education" opening remarks said:

"There was never a work of civilization which has received universal homage as the Bible. It is over three thousand years old, and yet it was never so popular. In the first seventy-seven years of its existence, the English Bible sold 88,000,000 volumes. In the last ten years it has sold 30,000,000 copies. The Bible is the most interesting, the most more productive of thought, other work in literature. It said that the Bible had more over his mind than any other book. The 'Grand Old Man' of Gladstone, has named it 'the noble Rock.' The man who does not include a thorough knowledge of the Bible is not a liberal. The Bible claims to be divine literature; it has a self-authenticating power, never have spread with the world to-day."

—THE Rhode Island correspondent of the Examiner notes the President Andrews, of Brown upon whom the honor has been conferred of representing his country to the Brussels monetary conference. President Andrews called for the 12th inst., and will be in February. The religious college is regarded as hopeful, although young men, signified their willingness missionary and evangelistic about the city during the term. The correspondent quotes when but "two students any propensity for such work were looked upon as some nomena fanatics, and would that it were better for fine their energies to the curriculum; this, although rage was well up to the class. How happily they changed! The young men in quartettes, prepared by and sing the gospel."
