H. M. S. Phelan is under orders to proceed to Behring Sea on April 20, for patrol duty during the close season three months from the 1st of May.

Mr. Kemp, the oyster expert of the Fisheries Department, leaves Ottawa for Tracadie, N. S., this week, where he proposes to plant a bed with young oysters this spring.

The ratification of the Franco-Canadian treaty, it is said in Paris, is held in abeyance pending the Dominion's legislation on certain points involving the "most favored nation" provision.

The new "Malvey" school house, valued at $40,000, has been destroyed by fire at Winnipeg. The building contained Manitoba's exhibit at the World's Fair, which was also destroyed.

Alexander Lynch, of Halifax, was drowned in the harbor Wednesday afternoon. He was crossing in a canvas boat of his own construction, and when fifty yards from shore it capsized. He was drowned before his wife's eyes.

ORDER A DOZEN.—There is a big line of men's collars at Oak Hall, St. John, both standing and turned down. You may have them at $1.20 per dozen. Good style, well made. Handsome men, handsome collars. Are you in it? Send for a dozen.

The Scotch newspapers comment very favorably on the report made by Hon. A. R. Angus, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, regarding the restriction upon the importation of Canadian cattle. Mr. Herbert Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, is understood to be studying the report.

George McPherson, of the I. C. R. car shop, Moncton, met with a serious accident Monday. He was assisting to roll a heavy car wheel and stepped in front to stop it when he was struck against a wall, the rim of the wheel striking him in the stomach, badly rupturing his bowels. McPherson's family belong to Sussex.

The steamer Algerine has arrived at Catalina, N.B., with fifteen thousand young hares and three thousand old seals. She reports the Ranger with fifteen thousand, the Hope with twelve thousand, the Greenland with fifteen thousand, the Labrador with eight thousand, the Matiff with eight thousand and the Leopard with sixteen hundred.

The Newfoundland confederation delegates were tendered a banquet by the citizens of Ottawa, on Tuesday evening of last week, and it proved to be a great success. The Mayor of the city presided, and on his right sat Lord Aberdeen, while to his left was Sir Mackenzie Bowell. Addresses were delivered by the Governor General, the Premier, Sir James Grant, the Newfoundland delegates and others.

A SUIT FOR TEN DOLLARS.—Law suits generally cost more than ten dollars. They are luxuries. But a suit of men's clothes can be got at Oak Hall, St. John, as low as seven dollars. And their ten dollar suits, with a cap to match at sixty cents, are the quickest sellers and best value for the money they ever handled. You—any man—can afford $10.65 for a neat and stylish spring or summer suit with cap to match. Go or send to Oak Hall.

WELL DRESSED BOYS.—Every mother takes pride in the appearance of her boys. She likes to see them well dressed. And there is no reason why she should not. For at Oak Hall, St. John, they are selling Oxford suits for boys 3 to 10 years old at $7.25; and for boys 10 to 15 years old at $9.75. You know how Oxford wears. It looks well, top. The suits are made up in the latest style. Go or send to Oak Hall. They will use you well and make your boys happy.

The following students passed their final examinations lately at Whiston & Frazer's Commercial college and were awarded diplomas. H. A. Gillis, Pictou; Arch McArthur, Mattand; Bella Smith, Acadia Mines; Chas. O. Doyle, Five Islands; Teresa C. Wheby, Dartmouth; J. G. Rood, Halifax; W. F. Mahon, Great Village; John A. Stewart, St. Peters; S. Y. Baugh, Halifax; R. J. Cooke, Fort Williams; A. S. Forrest, Halifax; Susan Quinlan, Shelburne; Arthur Cox, Upper Sackville.

Cushing & Co.'s splendidly equipped sawmill at Union Point, Fairville, a little above the suspension bridge, across the Falls, was burned to the ground Wednesday morning, throwing 250 men and boys out of work. The loss is about $50,000, and the insurance $28,937. Since March 10, 1893, the mill has been running winter and summer, without a stop. The stock of timber now on hand is enough to keep the mill running the whole season, without the need of using the ten million feet now in the woods. The orders on hand now amount to over four million feet, some of which is on the wharf, but most of which has to be sawed.

DEATHS.
MALLOY.—At Hammond, April 2nd, Mrs. Thos. Malloy, aged 74 years.
SLACK.—At Springhill, April 6, Amy Myrtle, infant daughter of Barbara and Archibald Slack, aged five months.
McLATCHY.—At Wentworth, Hants Co., N. S., on March 7th, William H. McLatchy, in the 65th year of his age.
HICKS.—At Point Midgie, Westmorland Co., N. B., Ellen Jane, daughter of Mansfield and Etta Hicks, and granddaughter of Deacon John Manning and Jane Hicks, aged 11 years. This bright little girl died trusting in Jesus.
CLARK.—On April 2nd, Mrs. Elinor Clark passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Porter, Margareville, N. S., at the advanced age of 94 years. She was a member of the Upper Wilnot Baptist church, maintained a consistent christian walk, and "finished her course with joy." Two sons and two daughters are left to rejoice that their dear mother has been called from a life of great suffering to an eternal life of purity and joy with Jesus.

TOWNSEND.—At Jolicure, Westmorland Co., N. B., John Townsend, an old and very much respected citizen of the place. Mr. Townsend in early life united with the Presbyterian Reformed church, and in later years a constant attendant upon our Baptist services at Point de Bute, as also a good supporter of the cause. Our departed brother died in the full assurance of faith, leaving a widow and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. His funeral was largely attended by friends and acquaintances from far and near.

WHITMAN.—Deacon Simeon F. Whitman, calmly, peacefully passed on ward March 22nd, aged 56 years. His last illness was protracted and trying, but he bore it with patience and thanked God. He belonged to the New Albany family of Whitman's and was an honorable member. He had the integrity and sweetness of christian character—genial, musical and devoted to the best interests of the community. The young people had in him a true friend, who prayed for and spoke to them of the precious Saviour. The church, Sunday school and family have lost heavily but he has gained. May the Lord comfort sorrowing ones and cause the mantle of devotion to fall upon his only son, who intends to care for the home.

GOUBEY.—At Port Maitland, March 9, William H. Goubeay, in the 84th year of his age. Our deceased brother was baptized by the late Rev. Wellington Jackson, August 31st 1847, and united with the Beaver River church of which he continued an active member until removed by death. In 1859 he was elected a deacon and during his life magnified his office. He knew what he believed and why he believed. Was a constant reader of our denominational paper; frequently present at the meetings of the association and took an intelligent interest in all denominational affairs. He leaves an aged widow, 10 children, 49 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren to mourn his loss.

TUPPER.—Bridgewater Baptist church lost one of its best members by the death of Oliver Tupper (see Newcombe), beloved wife of J. Allen Tupper, on the 25th of March. When the church was organized, May 7, 1848, her name appears on the list of members and since that date she has been a tried and faithful adherent. Sister Tupper had almost completed her sixty first year. Her last illness was protracted and painful, yet there was no complaint. She was ready and willing to go when called, and to her sorrowing family almost her last words were of hopefulness that they too would soon join her. She leaves a sorrowing husband, two sons and two daughters.

MURPHY.—At the residence of Wm. Jeffrey, Young's Creek, Queens Co., N. E., March 27th, Mrs. Julia Murphy, aged 76 years. Deceased with her late husband, Timothy Murphy, came from Ireland to New Brunswick and settled at Cumberland Bay; preceded a large family, some of which preceded them to the spirit world. The others are settled in the United States.—One son occupied.

She was originally a Roman Catholic, but was led to see the fallacy of her early training. She sought and found the Saviour, and became a member of the 1st Grand Lake church. For 5 years she has been a great sufferer. Her illness has been largely of a mental character, but in her rational hours she gave evidence that her trust was in the friend of sinners. She was never without the assurance that her departure was to her to be present with the Lord. May God bless the widely scattered family.

ELDRIDGE.—On May last, Mrs. Eldridge of Sandy Cove, left here for the State of New Hampshire to spend the summer with her son, and to visit other acquaintances. After remaining there for several months, she was taken sick, and left for home, and arrived on the 5th of Nov. last in a very weak and feeble state, and kept weakening down without any pain whatever, until the 20th of March, when she passed away at the age of 71 years, rejoicing in her Saviour's arms. She has been a consistent member of the Baptist church for forty years or more. Mr. Eldridge claims her to have been one of the best wives and mothers that the world ever knew. Three days before she died she said there was a voice said to her as audibly as a man could have spoken, viz: "You must be born again, and you know that you never have been." She remained in a despairing state for some hours, when finally Christ appeared, and dispelled the gloom and filled her soul with dying graces which she enjoyed to the last.

FREEMAN.—Bro. Charles C. Freeman, of Greenfield, Queens Co., N. S., departed this life on Friday, March 11th. Our dear brother had been deeply afflicted in his family during the winter. His wife and daughter suffering with typhoid fever. They had just recovered when he was taken down himself and after a short but very severe illness passed away. Bro. Charles was baptized into the fellowship of the Greenfield church at the age of twenty one, and has proved himself an active, earnest and faithful worker in the vineyard of his Lord for twenty-five years, until death. He filled the office of church clerk efficiently and faithfully for thirteen years. He was secretary for and taught a class in Sabbath school for years. He was a cheerful burden-bearer in all the interests of the church; was president of the B. Y. P. U.; deputy of the Division of the Sons of Temperance, and superintendent of the Band of Hope. All these societies looked up to him for counsel and support. As a citizen he was active and respected. He was serving the county as a councillor on his second term. The church, community, and country feel they have met with a great loss. He leaves a sorrowing wife and four children, the eldest thirteen years old and the youngest two, with a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Baker from Milton, the pastor being absent at Millford.

MAPLE SOCIAL.
North Springfield, Vermont, April 1895.
Ha, ha! To live where Maple trees sway in our Vermont sugar groves!
Breves caving,
Show us the way,
Winter's going!
The Maple sweet
Is so come in haste,
And with us taste
Maple
Cheap for money—
lowest price—
So very nice!
Friends are meeting,
Kindly greeting,
"Sit down the pot!"
A little dip
On snow to cook,
And then to taste:
Be quick! Make haste!
How we pity!
For our very air is sweetened!
And each hour brings its troubles,
As we gather round the cauldrons,
Where the Maple sectar bubbles.
