After service Sunday evening, the members of the Stone church choir, through their rector, presented Mr. Ford with a handsome case, accompanying his departure, as a sign of appreciation at his appointment to be conductor of the Oratorio society.

The address was signed by the Rev. J. deBarry, Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Wetmore, the Misses Knodel, Fairweather, Manning, Halliday, Patton, McKeen, Smith, and McInnes, and Messrs. U. C. Coster, G. T. Robinson, A. G. Burnham, T. H. Reed, J. Reed, A. H. Lindsay, and J. N. Rogers. Mr. Ford, although a short time in our city, has reached the top of the ladder as a professional musician, and his great ability and courtesy have won him many friends, and I wish him much success in his new position.

Dr. Eason left for Halifax on Monday, but will return to St. John before his final removal to New York.

It appears that Mrs. Geo. Moore (nee Miss Mary Fitch) whose marriage in New Jersey and subsequent widowhood were the chief topics of conversation in society circles a short time ago, is not to tread the flowery path they predicted for her, nor to long enjoy peace in the home she has left for her aged husband. The heirs of the old gentleman contented the bequest illegal on the ground that Mr. Moore being in a dying condition and also of weak mind could not leave his property to a foreigner. A lawsuit is impending.
