Mr. and Mrs. George W. Daniel left town last week for Halifax to spend two or three weeks.

A very pleasant feature of the present summer has been the weekly free concert given every Wednesday evening in Victoria park by the City band. It has long been a source of complaint that our citizens, though Montserrat has always possessed an excellent band—had no opportunities of hearing good band music unless they specially requested to hear it, and I must say that the old 14th was indeed sparkling in its sweetness, seldom favoring the people with an open air concert, but the Citizens have adopted an entirely different attitude towards the public, and each week we are regaled with an excellent programme of band music which should go far towards educating the taste of the public, and should also win the gratitude of the community at large.

Mr. Fred Wilbur of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Woodstock, sea of Mr. S. F. Wilbur of Montserrat, is spending a few days at his home here.
