The many Fredericton friends of Mr. Forgan, formerly a bank manager in that city, will be interested in the following note from the Inter Ocean of Chicago.

Three of Chicago's prominent banks will ring out the old and ring in the new by a change of presidents with the opening of a new year. James H.

Stocks will take active charge of the Commercial National on the first day of January, and early in this month David R. Forgan will be elected to the presidency of the Union National, while Ernest Lamill will be similarly honored by the stockholders of the Corn Exchange. In this connection it is interesting to note the truth of the saying that Chicago is essentially the city of young men. It is

He began his career as a messenger boy in the residential bank of St. Andrew's, Scotland, his ative town, and after three years of faithful service migrated to Canada, where he secured a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia at Halifax. Within four years he had risen to the post of manager of the bank's branch at Fredericton, N. B., which position he filled for six years. From there he went to the American Exchange National Bank at New York as assistant cashier, and later on was offered and the position of cashier by the Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis. Four years later

THINGS OF VALUE.

There never was and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which the flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and indifferently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn, would aggravate the other. We have, however in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength, and the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's swain restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid tendency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased use of substance—resulting in improved appetite. Northrop & Lym's of Philadelphia, Pa., have given to the public their superior medicine. While the usual price, as everywhere, is $1.00, the opinion of scientists in this line approaches near-perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Visitor—"What are you crying about, my little man?" Little Willie—"All my brothers have hollers, and I have none." Visitor—"Why, that's too

Curious Tourist—"What are you fishing for?"
Farmer's boy—"Fish." Curious Tourist—"What do you fish with?" Farmer's Boy—"Bait." Curious Tourist mouths."

A Life Saved.—Mr. James Bryson, Cameron states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by the physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC RAY, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on his advice I procured a small machine, and less than half a bottle cured me. I certainly believe it saved my life. I was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

Small Boy—"Mother, please give me another lump of sugar for my coffee, I've dropped the one you gave me." Mother, there you are. Where did you drop it?" Small Boy—"In the coffee."

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bick's, or Consumptive Syrup. It acts directly on the lungs, and increases the moisture of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, h. o. n. t. i. s. etc. It has cured

John—"Have you seen the tube out of my bicycle tire, Mary?" Mary—"O, yes, dear. There was a little hole in it, and I took it and sewed a patch on it."

AS PARKER'S VEGETABLE PILLS contain Mandrake and Dandelion, they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain Roots and Herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels." Mr. E. A. Cairncross, Shakespear, writes: "I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Biliouness and Derangement of the Liver having used them myself for some time."

A Dinner Pill—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead up to the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

Hello, Haudie! What was your hurry when you came in on your wheel today? I never saw you work so hard." "I wanted to get home before my cyclometer got up to fifty miles. I never permit myself to ride more than that day."

Mrs. Celeste Coon, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's pills, and all my afflictions under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion' disappeared."
