Kerr Will Compete With Sheridan

MARTIN SHERIDAN.
World's Champion All-Around Athlete, Shown Completing the Discus Throw.

Some of the greatest field and track athletes in the world will participate in the field day events at Pittsburgh June 13, and the Smoky City will be just about the most prominent place on the world's sport map that day. Among the men who will compete are Melvin W. Shephard, Geo. Bonhag, John Flanagan, Porter, Kerr, Robinson and Martin Sheridan.

Sheridan's performance will be watched closely, as he is the greatest all-around athlete the world has ever produced, according to Keene Fitzpatrick, the famous trainer of track and field athletes. Sheridan holds all records for the discus throw, and his greatest feat was staged July 5, 1909, when, at the games of the Amateur Athletic Union at Celtic Park, New York, he made a new record, scoring a total of 7385 points, far and away above any mark made by other athletes competing against him.

Sheridan is not a specialist, but is an all-around man, a star in every event. It is confidently expected that he will beat his best records at the Pittsburgh meet, and other records are also expected to go, as the best men in the east and central west will be competing.

LAST NIGHT'S GAME A FARCE

St. John the Baptist Give Another Poor Exhibition, Losing to A. O. H., 11-8 --- Tie in Commercial League.

A. O. H. 11; St. John Baptist 8. Over 500 enthusiasts sat in the grandstand and almost perished last evening while the A. O. H. and St. John the Baptists amused themselves in a four inning game that was replete with plays that exceed the vocabulary of baseball. As error succeeded error, one by one the fans got up and stealthily left the place, while the silence of the few who remained all through the agony was as of the grave. A cheer would have been almost sepulchral so great was the gloom, as run succeeded run, and errors were piled up.

McGuigan was in the box and seemingly could not locate the plate, while Quinn issued passes with the regularity that Rockefeller endows college. The fielders played a loose, listless game, and apparently were indifferent to the result which finally ended 11 to 8. Many complaints were heard from well known baseball followers, against the management permitting scrub players taking part in league games, and it is suggested that in the interest of the league, the St.

Injured Arm Ends Iron Man's Career

JOE MCGINNITY, THE ONE-TIME INVINCIBLE.

There have been many number of so-called "Iron Men" in base ball, but Joe McGinnity is the best known of them all. McGinnity had a habit of pitching double-headers and winning them in a manner that made it look easy. It now appears that McGinnity's day as an effective pitcher is over. The old-time star is part owner of the Newark club of the Eastern league, and the going hasn't been easy for him for some time, but an accident to his pitching arm several days ago probably has put him out of the pitching end of the game for good. Of course, the Newark fans are worried, because McGinnity was one of the club's mainstays in the box. McGinnity made his greatest record as a member of the New York Giants in 1905, when they won the pennant in the National league and then toyed with the Athletics, coping the title of world's champions. In this season McGinnity pitched 46 games, and his percentage of victories was .583. In the games for the world's championship he pitched in two and won one of them, Ames relieving him in the second contest which he started. McGinnity released the "Iron Man" in the spring of 1909, and McGinnity purchased an interest in the Newark team. Last year McGinnity landed his second place and he pitched some good ball during the season. This year he had a hard time getting started, and then met with the serious accident to his pitching arm.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Toronto Looks Good for Eastern League Pennant--Jeff Knocked Out Chynski--Lou Scholes in Practice.

The Toronto Leafs are going strong just at present. The pitchers are beginning to show their form, while Delahanty and O'Hara are clouting the ball. Delahanty showed the best form with the bat on the spring training trip, but has been slow rounding to in the league games. He is a lot better than he has shown and has apparently struck his stride in the last couple of days.

Lou Scholes, the Toronto sculler, will know by the middle of next week as to his chances of going to England to compete in the Diamond Sculls this year. At present he is working like a horse to get in shape should he make up his mind about going over. Lou gave his new Sims shell its first taste of Canadian water the other day, and he was so tickled with the boat that he had to leave Lou out all alone to get his fill of the new boat. Tuesday night Lou will make known his intentions of going to England, and not until then, as he wants the last minute to prepare himself.

News has leaked out that on Tuesday Jim Jeffries knocked out Joe Chynski so cold that it took some time to bring the former heavyweight back to where he could see the sun and hear the little birds twittering in the tree tops.

The Jeffries handlers kept the story quiet for they did not want it bruited about that the big fellow was beating up his own training partners.

It was a real fight. The two giants went at it nip and tuck for four rounds, hitting pretty hard. Suddenly Jeffries swung a vicious left to Chynski's jaw and twisted the big fellow's head with the force of the blow. In an instant things happened. Jeffries waded in. Chynski's ears were mashed into cauliflower shape, his nose crushed, a tooth knocked out and his lips split. Another swing and Chynski went to dreamland.

It is a great battle that Larry Lajoie and Ty Cobb are having in the American League for the batting honors. Lajoie started out at a 500 clip at the beginning of the season, but has dropped somewhat recently, while Cobb has come fast in the last few days. Saturday Cobb hit .600, while Lajoie was there with a .500 mark. Sunday Cobb fell to .200 while Lajoie had .333. Yesterday Cobb hit safely three times in seven, while Lajoie was up only four times, connecting for three hits. In 35 games Lajoie has hit for an average of .406, having been at bat 128 times, scoring 18 runs and making 52 safe hits. Cobb has played in 38 games, has hit safely 55 times in 147 times at bat, and has scored 33 runs. In addition, he leads Lajoie in extra base hitting. Cobb's average is .383, while at the same time last year it was .377. Only 23 points separate the pair, and Cobb is rapidly overhauling the leader.

GOOD BALL PROMISED IN NEXT GAME

After Wednesday evening's trappy exhibition between the St. Johns and Clippers, it is expected that some real classy ball will be put up by the same teams when they clash again this evening on the Every Day Club grounds. Manager McBride's artists have been practicing faithfully and will go on the field determined to win one game. He expected to be here in time for Saturday's game. He received a telegram last evening, stating that the expected twirler could not arrive before Monday. This he said, changed the situation somewhat, and he would be unable to play his team in but one game. The teams will line up in tonight's game as follows:

St. Johns Catcher, Clippers

Some real classy ball was dished out to the 300 or more fans who attended the ball argument in the West Side last evening, when in a fast paced inning game the Maple Leafs put it all over the LaTours to the tune of 7-2. The game was marked by speedy base running and sharp, snappy fielding, the calibre of the game comparing favorably with the senior leagues. Foxborough's three-run inning was a feature. The battery for the Maple Leafs was Allingham and Morrissey, and for LaTours, Baillie and Estabrooks.

Junior Interscholastic.
In the Junior interscholastic league last evening the Shamrocks last evening defeated the Shamrocks last evening in a class game with the score of 10-7. Connolly and Monahan were the battery for the winners and John and Lavigne officiated in a like manner for the Shamrocks.

On the Weldon Lot.
The Scouts got theirs again in the Junior Y.C.A. league last evening, when they went down before the High School in a four inning exhibition to the tune of 12-1. The losers were outclassed at every stage of the game. A large crowd saw the game.

BY PAT
In Massachusetts they have a state examining board before which every would-be chauffeur must appear and be examined before he or she is permitted to drive an automobile in the state. Massachusetts is not unique in this respect as several states have automobile examining boards, but Massachusetts is unique in having for members of this board a group of men who are determined to do the work such a board is appointed to do.

If other state boards will wake up and follow the example of Massachusetts there will be a noted decrease in the number of automobile accidents caused by careless or incompetent or both kinds of chauffeurs. For the simple reason the applicant for a permit will have to satisfy men who know the business, that he is a proper person to be trusted with a permit to drive a gasoline wagon over the roads of the state and the streets of the city.
