Turkey, oranges, nuts, etc.

The Moneton commeal and feed mill has been obliged to suspend the grinding of corn, lowing to unfair discrimination in freight rates by the Intercolonial and Grand Trunk railways.

The rate at present is 224 cents per 100 pounds from Chitago to Moneton, and twenty cents to St. John. In other words, these roads hall corn eighty-nine mifes beyond Moneton for two and a half cents less per 100 pounds than the Moneton rate, while the rate to Amherst, Truro and other points east is the same as to Moneton. The discrimination in favor of St. John is equal to five cents per barrel, which is a fair milling profit as business is John is equal to five cents per barrel, which is a fair milling profit as business is done nowadays, and the Moncton mill is out of business as far as corn is concerned. Some time last year a tariff was put in force, giving St. John and Moncton au equal rate, but for some reason unknown it has been discontinued and the old discriminating rate restored. This is a question that the board of trade might profitably take up.—Moncton Times. itably take up.—Moncton Times.

The New Brunswick Southern railway the line was cleared nicely between Carleton and St. Stephen, while the trains arrived at the border city on time.

In the afternoon the special train again started out anead of the express for St. John, and when it got to St. George it was ordered back to St. Stephen, as the express engine had broken down. The special engine returned to St. Stephen and took the disabled engine and train in tow and started for St. John. The train arrived at Spruce Lake, about eight miles from the Carleton station, at 3,30 o'clock yesterday morning, and here an axle of one of the tender wheels broke and the special engine was disabled.

There were only a few passengers or coard, and these were driven to the city disabled engine, and she arrived at the clock Tuesday afternoon.

THE WINTER PORT,

Claims of St. John 7 ith Respect to Dredging.

The Common Council of St. John has made an arrangement with the Canadian pose of increasing the number of vertisavariable for ocean steamships, and all that remains to be done to carry this attlemangement into effect is a promise from the Dominion government that they will attend to the dredging which will be necessary for the construction of these new deep water wharves. The Hon. Mr. Fielding while in St. Lohn recently was inwhat the St. John common cuncil has asked for. But no action so far has been taken by the government to carry out Mr. Fielding's views. In the meantime, time is passing away and the city of St. John is unable to make arrangements for obtaining the timber which will be necessary for the construction of these new wharvis. It would be a great misfortune if the matter should be delayed so long as to make it impossible for the new wharves to be constructed before the shipping season of next winter begins. Such ping season of next winter begins. Such a delay would mean a loss of business to the port of St. John and to the province generally. The common council of St. John are appealing to the people and the press of this province to use their influence with the common council the press of this province to use their influence with the common visit the common control of the council ence with the government in favor of immediate action, and the Gleaner cordially endorses their position. It is very unfortunate that for the past six months, fortunate that for the past six months, New Brunswick has been without a representative in the cabinet to urge its claim to consideration. The province has suffered much from this cause and will continue to suffer so long as the present condition of affairs is maintained. It cannot be expected that the representatives of other provinces will take as much interest in the affairs of New Brunswick as one of our own people. We hope that the appointment of Mr. Emmerson to the cabinet will not be longer delayed.—Fred.

Want as Favorable Rates for Lumber as Grain Shippers Get.

A Truro despatch to the Halifax Herald says:—
"This week the committee appointed by the Nova Scotia Lumbermen's Association expect to meet the acting minister of railfor more favorable freight rates. The members of the association are feeling quite keenly in reference to the matter and are of the opinion that they are long suffering. It is now more than a year since the association took up the grievance, and during that time they have been doing all they can to remedy the evil, leaving no stone inturned in that direction. They claim that the present rate is most unsatisfactory, and that the magnitude and importance of the lumber business as a freight feeder for the I. C. R., is of sufficient importance to warrant prompt action on the part of the railway department in bringing about a more satisfactory state of affairs.

"There ran be no doubt that the lumbermen have a good case, and that they are entitled to consideration at the hands of the government. The humber industry of this province means a good deal as regards industry as well as trade and commerce. It is, if not the largest, then one of the largest labor employing, supply purchasing, traffic producing concerns in the province, and we are quite sure the general public are willing that the operators should receive as favorable consideration at the hands of the government in the matter of freight rates over the people's road as that being received by the western grain shippers.
