

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Dec. 12.—On Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Donville, Mrs. D. Robertson, Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Handrick, Miss Louise Fairweather, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Bell, Miss Edith Gilbert, Mrs. W. J. Davidson, Miss L. Currie and Miss Thompson met to pack the box of Christmas articles for the Church of England, to be distributed at Christmas time. This was a contribution from the local branch of the W. A. and had quite a Santa Claus appearance.

On Saturday evening the fifth form students of the boys school, and a few Rothsay young ladies were pleasantly entertained at the Rectory. The collection closes next week for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Brock entertained at the tea on Thursday for Mrs. R. P. Foster. Among those present were Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Mrs. Blanchet, Miss Davidson, Miss Alice Davidson, Miss Fletcher, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Dorothy Purdy, Mrs. F. Foster, Mrs. Fred Foster, Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Blair, Miss Donville, Mrs. John W. Davidson, Miss Robertson, Miss Sophie Robertson, Miss Gilbert, Mrs. Mabel Gilbert and others. Mrs. Daniel presided.

Mr. John Purdy has purchased from Mr. Edward Bates the property, about seven acres, on the road to Gouda Point road and the Church road.

On Tuesday Mrs. John E. Moore, of St. John, entertained some of the Netherwood girls at afternoon tea, at the Kennedy House.

A very delightful evening was spent by the pupils and teachers at Netherwood on Saturday. Each represented a "book" and each a character from the story.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Burnett are receiving congratulations in consequence of the arrival of a baby boy this week.

Netherwood closes on Wednesday next for the Christmas holidays. The report is expressed in consequence of Miss Todd's decision to give up her position and return home to Montreal. Miss Todd has made many warm friends who are very sorry to have her go.

Last evening a very successful follow-up entertainment was given at the Women's Social Circle. The program included singing and recitations from the poets work. Also a dialogue and a play.

The Misses Gilbert are giving a bridge this evening for Mrs. R. P. Foster. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Foster will entertain at bridge tomorrow evening.
