Stanley Akery was shot and killed at the edge of a wood near his home, Akery's Wharf (N. B.), on Friday night. He left his home about 8 o'clock with his rifle, with the intention of shooting some birds. On Saturday morning a body was found near the wood. His rifle was discharged, but he was killed by a rifle bullet. He leaves his wife and three children. No information has yet been received as to who shot him or how the affair happened. It is possible that he was killed by a spent bullet, but it is more likely that he was killed in mistake by a careless hunter. An investigation is still being pursued into the matter.

Love, Life and Faith.
(By John Stuart Thomson.)
It drops of sweetness longer leave Their memory than rains of sorrow, Then from your children, as I live, Forgiveness only do I borrow.

The holy temple of the soul,
Where what has been must always be?
And give as you have given to me.

When night at last shall close around, Shroud or star, which shall we take To follow to the desert's bound?
Shall not faith say for love's old sake?

INVOLVED IN GERMAN BOMB PLOT

On the left is Max Breitung, nephew of the E. N. Breitung, millionaire mine owner and the capitalist who owned the steamship Dacla, the seizure of which became an international incident. He is a member of the alleged band who conspired to blow up ships carrying munitions from America to the Allies. On the right is Dr. Herbert Klenze, a well-to-do young engineer, born in Germany and at one time a student at Columbia University, who was the fourth man to be arrested by the federal authorities in connection with the plot to blow up outgoing ships that had on board munitions for the Allies. It is now believed that the confession of Frey, who assumes all the blame, is only a shield for the ones financing the scheme.

Monday, Nov. 6.
Easterly gales of considerable importance, with heavy snow squalls, swept the city on Saturday and early yesterday, in periods of most disagreeable weather which has prevailed since the September gales. No damage of note is recorded in St. John and the suburbs; but reports indicate that communication by telephone and telegraph was cut off between St. John, Sackville and Amherst, and that wires and poles occurred in the Tantramar Marsh district. From Sackville to Westchester (N. S.), the storm raged with marked violence.

The C. P. H. local office reported last night that their lines to Halifax had been damaged and that interruption of communication had followed. Service was complete at 7 o'clock last night. Two poles were reported down and broken. The Western Union service, east from St. John, suffered heavily in the storm. The local office reported last night that east of Sackville a large number of poles had been blown down and that the wires had been broken in places.

Communication was established with Halifax and North Sydney last night, and the service is expected to be normal again late today. Extra crews of men engaged through Nova Scotia restoring the cables, and again, called to New Brunswick last night, were kept busy with the rough weather on inland waters. The tug Wagon which left St. John Saturday with the schooner Abbie Stubbs in tow, was forced to seek shelter from the blow.

The blow-down of more than 150 telegraph poles between Truro and Amherst brought about many unusual happenings in the way of sending out messages to the coast and again, called to New Brunswick Saturday and yesterday. W. H. Golding of Imperial Theatre received an urgent wire from Halifax last night in the evening relating to reserved seats for the Lauder engagement.

The message had been called to New Brunswick for the engagement of the Lauder. From New York the telegram came o.k. on the land wires. The desired information was returned to the sister city by the same submarine route. On Saturday night, Halifax train a telegraph company despatch carrier took passage for Halifax with a bundle of "telegrams" to be sent out from that point. The interruption in the service was quite serious for a while but is being rapidly overcome.

STATE FUNERAL FOR SIR CHAS. TUPPER AT HALIFAX.
Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The family of the late Sir Charles Tupper has accepted the invitation of the Red Cross to be held at the Dominion government, and arrangements for the same will be made without delay. The funeral will probably take place at Halifax on November 15 and most of the cabinet ministers have signified their intention of attending.

Elgin News.
Elgin, N. B., Nov. 4.—A party was held at the home of Councilor T. A. Goggin last night in honor of the soldier boys who are visiting their homes here. They are Privates Harry Lane, Harold Beck, Arnold Gardar, Charles Barchard, Herbert Carter and Ora Steves. The house decorations were very pretty, being of a patriotic nature. Here and there amongst the flags and banners were three pennants, each bearing the name of a soldier, and the number of his battalion. These pennants were afterwards presented to the soldiers by Mrs. Coy Goggin and Miss Ruby Goggin.

Music, games and dancing were indulged in until midnight when a dainty lunch was served. A number of whistling selections with accompaniment by Miss Emma Kilian were especially enjoyed.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goggin, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Goggin, Mrs. H. Shaffer, Sadie Daley, Fred Daley, Arnold Daley, Currie Kaye, DeMille, Nina Graves, Walter Steves, Katherine Steves, Percy Steves, Charlie Steves, Emma Kilian, Lloyd Tackles, Annie Kilian, Marguerite Geldart, Arnold Geldart, Thomas Jones, Minnie Barchard, Charles Barchard, Lena Steves, Beulah Steves, Vera Milton, Elva Steves, Beatrice Downing, Mary Horsman, Hartley Steves, Goldie Horsman, Hanford Horsman, Harry Lane, Harold Beck, Herbert Carter, Ora Steves, Harry Goggin, Frank Horsman, Gertrude Collicutt, Arthur Burns, Bessie Graves, Eva Steves, Rita Tucker, Eva Stiles, Arthur Jones, George Steves, Fred Daley, Arnold Daley, Currie Kaye, Theodore Hopper and many others.

Before dispersing, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall" was sung in unison, and the soldier boys were wished all kinds of good luck.

SEVEN TRAVELLERS SIGN HONOR ROLL AT SATURDAY'S MEETING
The meeting of the Commercial Travellers' Association Saturday evening will not largely attend to the most fruitful so far as regards recruits. Seventy-seven names were added to the roll, making a total of nineteen now enlisted for the travellers' platoon. All are earnestly requested to attend the gathering next Saturday when matters of pressing interest are to come up.

Those who signed on Saturday were: Adam Gray, Clyde Avery, G. D. Osmond, H. C. Simmons, W. R. Mullin, F. W. Campbell and W. V. Owens.

HON. MR. TWEEDIE WINS APPEAL IN EXPROPRIATION CASE
Chatham, N. B., Nov. 4.—Hon. L. J. Tweedie has received word from Ottawa that he has been successful in his first step in his appeal from the decision of Judge Audette of the exchequer court, whereby the learned judge ordered Mr. Tweedie $2,100 and interest and cost for land taken for the railway purposes through what is known as the "Purdie wharf," a short distance above the new railway station. Judge Audette had decided that the defendant, Mr. Tweedie, had no title to the boom adjoining and he allowed no damage for the railway going through the boom. The defendant claimed that he and his predecessors had title by reason of their possession for sixty years, and he therefore appealed from the court's decision. Judgment on the appeal was given a few days ago, allowing the appeal with costs.

Furs for Italian Soldiers.
Have you any cast-off or unused furs? If you have they will be of service to the soldiers of our ally—Italy.

A circular has been received from Italy and has been distributed by the National Council of Women of Canada to all its branches. A copy reached Mrs. T. H. Bullock, president of the local branch, on Saturday. All donations to the cause should be sent to her home, 108 Germain street.

Common knowledge of the terrible winter in the Alps suffice to convey the terrible hardships the Italian soldiers must endure this winter. The high altitudes in which they are fighting are extremely cold. It is for the purpose of giving them a little comfort that the appeal is being made throughout Canada. Cast-off furs of any description, unused or spare furs, rugs, old pieces of any kind, in the shape of fur will answer the purpose. All such contributions will be gratefully received.

Richard Livingstone charged in the London police court with making a false statement that the Red Cross is selling socks to soldiers, before securing his release was forced to sign a legal affidavit repudiating this allegation.

In a letter to Mrs. E. A. Smith recently, Colonel Shillington, of the Canadian hospital at Le Touquet, says that in view of the then pending big offensive of the British and French the hospital had to be enlarged from 500 to 840 beds, and said that the recent donation from New Brunswick had been helpful in making the new hospital ready to receive the finest in the hospital. Mrs. Smith also acknowledges donations. These will be forwarded immediately.

The St. John County Hospital for Tuberculosis will be opened about Dec. 1. Workmen are now engaged in completing minor details of interior finish and the building will soon be ready for final inspection. Arrangements are now being made for the employment of cooks and other help. Dr. H. A. Farris, superintendent of the hospital, said last night that the institution was well equipped and was up-to-date in every detail. He believed that the site was a good one.
Paul Pedro, the Italian suspect of having attacked a young girl, was made a prisoner at Millstream (N. B.), early Saturday morning. Detective Barrett made the capture after a thrilling time. He brought the prisoner to the city on Saturday morning and had him arraigned before the police magistrate. The latter remanded him. The Italian had evaded capture for more than a week although the police throughout the entire lower province had been searching for him.
The handsome memorial window unveiled in St. David's church, St. John, Sabbath Oct. 22, with appropriate services, perpetuates the memory of two worthy members of the congregation in their lifetime, Mr. and Mrs. John F. MacKinnon, the pastor, preached a sermon on the occasion upon the subject of The Good Samaritan, a picture of which is set forth in the pattern of the window.
Those who had the pleasure of hearing Rev. J. T. Taylor, of Mt. W. LETTERS FROM THE FRONT
Mrs. Clarence McCready, of Moncton, has received a letter from her brother, Robert N. Anderson. He enlisted with the 26th Battalion at Halifax in September, 1914. He is "somewhere in Flanders." The village is battered almost beyond recognition. The few farmers who are left are plodding along and it shows what a hard time they are working away when any time a shell is liable to support him and his house to glory. The people at home can thank their fortune that they are so far away from the horrors of it all, and if you can tell you, you will all have to make big sacrifices before this trouble is over, and too much cannot be given in order to help the lads over here.

Wounded Men Lighted Pipes.
A letter has also been received by Mrs. H. T. Brewer, Fredericton, from her son, Ray, extracts from which follow:
"We, mother, by the time that you read this you will know that the 26th has been into it pretty good. We are now back at our billets for a rest. I have had one hard night of it, and it was hard on the nerves. "A" company had to get information about a certain place, and "B" company had to support them, and it was a hot place for about five hours. I cannot tell you about it now. The narrowest escape I had was when a shell or bomb burst about two feet in front of our trench and covered three of us with sand bags and mud. There were lots of bullets flying, but an inch is as good as a mile in this game. I tell you, mother, the 26th has some good men in it, and there was some grit though the men who were wounded would get up and lighting their pipes would walk out to get dressed. New Brunswick has a right to feel proud of her men. The Fredericton boys have all come through safe so far."

Brothers Both Wounded.
Corporal Roy H. Ferris, of Springhill, N. B., who was wounded in the recent heavy fighting in which the 26th New Brunswick Battalion distinguished themselves, is now in the New York War Hospital in England. His brother, Gordon, who is with the 10th Battalion, has been twice wounded and was recently so badly gassed that he is now undergoing treatment for his eyes, which were affected.
James Steen, manager of the Victoria alleys received the following letter from Walter "Happy" Evans, who is with the divisional ammunition column somewhere in France or Belgium.
"We don't get much chance to see anything over here, as we are not allowed out after 6 at night, as that is the time we do all our work. Some of the snipers towards the firing line that we pass through while going up are pretty well blown to pieces. One is almost blown off the map. Lawson, Turner and myself have a nice six boys team and it is working well now. Turner comes from out the Sandy Point road."

Had great luck in meeting my brother one night. He is in the 16th battalion in the First Contingent and I had not seen him for almost five years. I can tell you we were a glad pair of boys.
A Corps of Miners
Orders have been issued for the raising of a corps of three hundred miners to go to France, and blow up the German lines. Some of the miners in New Brunswick will be under the command of Major B. P. Rogers of Pembroke, Ont.
One hundred and fifty of this corps will be raised among the coal miners of Nova Scotia. Lieut. Robert Murray will shortly go to Pictou and Cumberland counties to get recruits among the miners of Westville, Springhill and the Joggins. Lieut. Murray's father is now in the trenches.
