The man who heeds not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through indolence, the victim of incurable disease. Lassitude, Weariness, Sadness, Aching of the Limbs indicate nervous disarrangement, the forerunner of many organic and functional diseases. The early employment of Fellows' Hypophosphites will effectually ward off such maladies.

E. H. LESTER, Auctioneer, THIS EVENING, at No. 12 King Square, FANS. Irish Poplin Dress, Bridge, found a young child in the street. The little wanderer is a mere infant, unable to give any account of herselt, and the Kelly girl is not more than nine years of age. The two wandered through the city until they came to Mrs. Littler, corner of Charlotte and Brittain streets. The child is now there awaiting a claimant. Mrs. Littler has made the little stranger as comfortable as possible, and is anxious that its garents should claim it.

Certain of the philosophers of that city have discovered that dogs are as much subject to hydrophobla in extremely cold as in extremely warm weather. Figaro 8 1ys, "We are in receipt of many letters calling for severe penalties, not only against mad dogs, but against the owners of them. These letters remind us of a small paper which printed at the head of its editorial columns this terrible notice: The author of articles which are not inserted will be burned at the stake."

ON DRAUGHT FOR CHRISTMAS USE Superior to anything in this Market. Pound Cake, Plain and Frosted. The practice in Judge Marchant's court in Cincinnati is more interesting than regular. Lawyers Johnson and Campbell were pitted against each other in a suit, apd their remarks were very personal. Campbell said finally that Johnson intentionally misread a document, and Johnson retorted that Campbell was a liar. Then they called each other names with profane adjectives. They sat opposite to each other at a wide table, and between the epithets they struck out wildly, but the blows fell short. Deacon Richard Smith's paper says that Judge Marchant "grinned horribly a ghastly smite, and sheemed to enjoy the fun, until suddenly he bethought him of his dignity, and thundered, 'If you don't shut up I'll fine you both.'" The lawyers then left the court to renew the fight in the street, when Johnson drew a knife and Campbell ran away, For sale by MAGNIFICENT R. E. PUDDINGTON & CO. Scotch Short Cake.
