being made to raise the sum by subscription to show appreciation of what Dr. Soper is doing in this park.

The annual spring seed fair of the South Waterloo Agricultural Society was held this morning, but it is not the show that it was in years gone by and there was only a fair exhibit. The show is now about 70 years old. The quality of the seed shown today was good, and considerable exchanged hands at the following prices: Oats $5c, barley 90t to $1, peas $1.75, and potatoes $1.50.

Because of the overcrowded condition a fourth room has been opened at St. Mary's separate school, and another teaching sister has joined the staff.
