BRIGADE Headquarters were carrying on as usual this week. All the eferans were on duty. The usual routine work was done. All ranks regret to hear of the intended departure of Sgt-Major Harold Rendell, who shortly leaves, likely by the next trip of the Manoa, for Canada. The gallant Sgt-Major was one of our representatives in the navy and did splendid work on mine sweeping duties in the North Sea. The general financial depression and consequent lack of employment is hitting the Brigade all over the Island. However, we must carry on though officers come and go. We hope, however, our country will soon come back to her stride and afford every man in it a decent livelihood. Are we down-hearted? No! Shall we win? Yes! In time, with faith in our resources, and patience. An revolver, Sgt-Major, and the best of luck meantime.

Last week the annual meeting of the Old Comrades was held. President Ern Chafe retiring and handing over his charge to a new executive, with President John Crane at their head. President Chafe has been a pillar of strength, and has re-organized the ex-members in great shape, has built a large addition to the club rooms worth over three thousand dollars, bought and installed a first-class billiard table, paid several annual payments of five hundred dollars towards Brigade expenses and has now retired in order to make room for new blood, taking a position on the executive. President Chafe, Treasurer Bradley, Secretary Davis and the old executive have done excellent work, and we congratulate them on their report.

The new executive, consisting of President Crane, Vice-President Crossman, Secretary Sam Gardner, are all old veterans, tried and trusty, and we are sure the future is safe in their hands, and the Old Comrades are giving them every support. They are now preparing their plans for a fall and winter program of lectures and billiard tournaments, card parties and a dance. As at Home will likely be held, and the executive will likely be assisted by their lady friends. Carry on Old Comrades! Carry on! They have organized a Comrades' Boat Club which will run their interests in the annual regatta. This club will be entirely a separate organization. Next Tuesday night, Major Williams, at the request of the board of Fire Underwriters, will address the Brigade on "Fire Prevention," by permission of Lieut-Col. Walter Rendell. It is also hoped to exhibit a moving picture film if arrangements can be made by Lieut. E. G. Ash.

Last night 135 all ranks were on duty with nine officers including Rev. E. J. Nicholls, Chaplain. Some 30 recruits passed a satisfactory examination under Capt. Stick, and were posted to their companies. Recruits Arthur Frost and William Frost were most efficient.

Sgt-Major Johnson of the pioneers has finalized the contract to erect a new chimney in the eastern end of the gymnasium, with contractor Burridge. This will be the means of heating the Warrant Officers' Mess, eastern gymnasium, Officers' Mess and orderly room. Gas will be entirely dispensed with where formerly this illuminant both heated and gave light to the whole Armoury.

We are glad to note that Grand Falls Company is becoming interested in organizing a C.L.B. Savings Bank department in order to encourage thrift. Bell Island has already a Savings Bank Department attached to their Company.

On Friday night, in the Gymnasium Miss Leah Rendell is organizing a dance in aid of the Warrant Officers and N.C.O.'s Mess Fund. Captain Sandy provides the music which will be up-to-date, including "Yes, we have no bananas to-day." Secure your tickets, as the supply is limited. Routine orders of Oct. 9th announce parade at 7.45; officers 8 p.m.; manual exercise 8.15 to 8.30. Recess for ten minutes; squad drill 8.40 to 8.55; games 8.55 to 9.10; company drill 9.10 to 9.20.

to 9.20. Parade dismissed at 9.20 so lads can all be home at ten o'clock. Any lads not home at this hour will not make Brigade an excuse for arriving home late in future.

The Girl Guides Company of the Girls' Friendly Society are negotiating to have the C.L.B. gymnasium for drill purposes Saturday mornings. We hope others will follow as there is plenty of room and the Armoury has great accommodation. Sgt. Arthur Johnson, boxing instructor, wants all ranks who are competitors in the coming Boxing and Wrestling Show on Nov. 14th, to report to him for training. All ranks are glad to hear that Band Sgt. Wiseman, who is on the casualty list at the hospital, is improving and welcomes Brigade visitors.—Q.
