

"The high esteem in which Presdt. M. is held by the farmers of Ont., and the very high regard in which he is held by the leading agriculturists of the Province, prove that his work has been most successful."—Farmers' Advocate.

MILLS, John Burpee, Q.C., legislator, is the young s. of the late John Mills, merchant and ship-owner, and is of Eng. descent. B. at Granville Ferry, N.S., July 24, 1850, he was ed. at Acadia Coll. (B.A. with honours, 1871; M.A., 1877), and studied law at the Harvard Law Sch. Called to the bar, 1875, he has practised throughout at Annapolis Royal, and was created a Q. C., by the Earl of Derby, 1890. He was for some yrs. a municipal councillor, and has sat in the Hq. of Commons, for Annapolis, in the Con. interest, since the g. e. 1887. At the g. e. 1896, he defeated the Hon. J. W. Longley by a majority of over 200. He is a mem. of the Ang. Ch., and has been twice m., 1st, Oct., 1878, to Bessie, 2nd dau. of A. W. Corbitt (she d. 1891); and 2ndly, July, 1896, to Agnes Catharine, eld. dau. of the late Lewis Rose.—Annapolis Royal, N.S.

MILLS, Thomas Wesley, M.D., educationist, was b. at Brockville, Ont., Feb. 22, 1847. Ed. at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., 1871; M.A., 1872), he pursued his med. studies at McGill Univ (M.D., 1878; and D.V.S., 1890). Afterwards continuing his studies in Eng. and Germany, under distinguished professors, he was apptd. demonstrator of Physiol., McGill Univ., 1882, lecturer on Physiol., 1884, and a prof. of that branch, 1886. In 1883 he published the results of original investigation on the Physiol. of the Voice, in which he maintained views in opposition to generally received opinion (Journ. of Physiol., Cam., Eng.). This paper was quoted by the foremost laryngologists of the day as authoritative, among others by the late Sir Morell Mackenzie and Dr. Lennox Browne. He has published also "Outlines of Lectures on Physiol." (1886); "A Text-book of Animal Physiol."

(1889); "A Text-book of Comparative Physiol." (1890); "How to keep a Dog in the City" (1891); and "The Dog in Health and Disease" (1892). He contributed articles on Digestion, the digestive secretions, etc., to "Buck's Hand-book of the Med. Sciences," and has written many articles to scientific and med. journals, a full list of which will be found in the "Bib. of the Royal Soc. of Can." Of these a series of papers on the "Physiol. of the Heart," has attracted special attention, as has also a paper on "Animal Electricity," in "The Internl. System of Therapeutics." He is a representative Fellow in med. of McGill Univ., a Fellow of the Royal Soc. of Can., and was elected Presdt. of the Nat. Hist. Soc. of Montreal, 1894. He founded in 1885 the Soc. for the study of Comparative Physiol. in connection with the Vet. Coll. (now the Faculty of Comp. Med. and Vet. Science of McGill Univ.), and has been Presdt. of the Soc. from the first. In 1895 he was invited to offer himself as a candidate for the chair of Physiol. then vacant in one of the large universities of the U. S. Dr. M. is an hon. mem. of the Am. Vet. Med. Assn., and has been V.-P. of the Medico-Chir. Soc., Montreal, and of the Nat. Hist. Soc. of Am., as well as Presdt. of the Vet. Med. Assn. of the Faculty of Comp. Med. of McGill Univ. He is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng.—McGill College, Montreal.

"Few men are so well qualified to speak on the subject of animal intelligence."—Herald.

MILLS, The Venerable William Lennox, Archdeacon of St. Andrew's (Ch. of Eng.), is the s. of the late Wm. Mills, Toronto. B. at Woodstock, Ont., he was ed. at the Grammar Sch. there and at the Western Univ. He pursued his theol. studies at Huron Coll. and at Trinity Univ., Toronto (B.D., 1882; D.D., 1894), was ordained deacon, 1872, and priest, 1873. After serving at Norwich, he became successively Rector of St. Thomas' Ch., Seaforth, and of