

PRINCIPAL HEADS.	WITNESSES.	PAGE Of Evidence.
Hebrides, Western—continued.
— minute subdivision of farms in - - - - -	Campbell - - - - -	73
— See Sub-letting.
— eagerness of inhabitants of, to avail themselves of an advantageous scheme of Emigration - - - - -	D° - - - - -	75
— State of fishery there, and usual food of the people - - - - -	D° - - - - -	75, 76, 77
Hemp, not profitably cultivated in Lower Canada - - - - -	Felton - - - - -	31
— See Canada, Lower.
— soil of both provinces favourable to growth of—under what circumstances likely to be cultivated - - - - -	D° - - - - -	59
— cheapness of, essential to success of British American fishery - - - - -	Uniacke - - - - -	67
— See Kentucky.
— expediency of encouraging the cultivation of, in Canada - - - - -	Felton - - - - -	229
— emigrant population best fitted for acquiring a knowledge of its culture - - - - -	D° - - - - -	ib.
— plan for extending the cultivation of - - - - -	D° - - - - -	230
— means for securing a market for the sale of - - - - -	D° - - - - -	231
Hertfordshire, the proprietor (Sir John Sebright) of a parish in, willing to contribute to promote Emigration—mode of contribution—persons that would be selected for removal - - - - -	Sebright - - - - -	124
— See Irish Labourers.
Hops, may be raised to any extent in Canada - - - - -	Felton - - - - -	59
Hottentots, generally employed at low wages by Dutch colonists at the Cape - - - - -	Carlisle - - - - -	88, 90
	Shepherd - - - - -	227
I.
Immediate Payment, deemed a preferable mode of contribution by Irish proprietors - - - - -	Spring Rice - - - - -	212
— See Annuity.
Ingram, Mr., condition of settlers taken out by him to Cape of Good Hope; employed at Albany chiefly as artisans - - - - -	Carlisle - - - - -	87
— See Cape of Good Hope.	Shepherd - - - - -	227
Ireland, Emigrants from in 1823, comfortably situated; where located; their gratification at the absence of distinction on account of religious opinion - - - - -	Boulton - - - - -	13, 14, 64
— See Emigrants. Tithes. Upper Canada.	Markland - - - - -	34
— supplies from, to British fisheries - - - - -	Uniacke - - - - -	63
— expense of sending labourers from, to Cape of Good Hope - - - - -	Carlisle - - - - -	87
— South of, distress prevailing in; relief afforded by subscriptions of 1822 only temporary - - - - -	Bishop of Limerick - - - - -	142
— evils of excess of population; painful remedies now applying; Emigration the immediate and proper remedy for them - - - - -	D° - - - - -	143
	Nimmo - - - - -	188
	Becher - - - - -	191, 192
	O'Driscoll - - - - -	195, 196
— anxiety to emigrate among the lower classes - - - - -	Bishop of Limerick - - - - -	143
— gentry and farmers likely to contribute towards expense of Emigration, when fully aware of the benefits resulting from it - - - - -	Bodkin - - - - -	216
— outrages committed by ejected tenants and their friends - - - - -	Bishop of Limerick - - - - -	143, 144
— parochial assessment desirable in aid of voluntary contribution - - - - -	O'Driscoll - - - - -	196
	Bishop of Limerick - - - - -	144
	D° - - - - -	145
	D° - - - - -	146
— mode of contribution most agreeable to landed proprietors in - - - - -	Becher - - - - -	192
— See Disturbances. Women.	Spring Rice - - - - -	212
— condition of population most wretched in agricultural districts - - - - -	Nimmo - - - - -	189
— course of husbandry in - - - - -	D° - - - - -	190
— populous districts in, the most tranquil - - - - -	D° - - - - -	189
	Becher - - - - -	191
Irish fishermen employed in British American fisheries; course adopted by them - - - - -	Uniacke - - - - -	70
— labourers, their wages while employed during harvest in parts of Sussex - - - - -	Curteis - - - - -	115
— their meritorious conduct in Hertfordshire - - - - -	Sebright - - - - -	125
— labourers and mechanics find ready employment in United States - - - - -	Buchanan - - - - -	169
— labourers in London, their readiness to perform work refused by Englishmen - - - - -	Bodkin - - - - -	215
— Catholics. See Emigrants.
Iron Works of Three Rivers, a large proportion of population of Lower Canada employed in them - - - - -	Felton - - - - -	57
J.
Johnson district; adjoins the military settlements in Upper Canada; by whom inhabited - - - - -	Cockburn - - - - -	150
Judges of court of appeals, number of in Lower Canada; great arrear of causes depending before them - - - - -	Felton - - - - -	180