XXXVII. The scholars receiving instruction in Charlottetown, and the Common and Royalty thereof, at any of the Schools therein receiving support from the Government, shall pay quarterly each the sum of one shilling and six-pence, to be collected by the Teacher of each School, and paid over, if a District School, to the Trustees thereof, and if a Female School, or the National School, to the Secretary of the Board of Education, and to be applied by such Trustees, or Secretary of the said Board, respectively, to the purchasing of fuel and defraying rent, and the cost of repairs of said school-houses, and other necessary purposes; and if such Trustees, or Board of Education, respectively, shall find that the said quarterly payment is not sufficient in amount for the purchase of fuel and other purposes as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, or Board of Education, respectively, to order and require a further payment to be made by each scholar, not exceeding, however, in any case, the sum of one shilling and six-pence quarterly, in addition to the first mentioned quarterly payment of one shilling and six-pence; and if the said sums, or either of them, be not paid, the scholars shall be debarred from future instruction until the same is paid; and the same shall also be recoverable by the Teacher in the name of any one or more of the Trustees, or of the Secretary of the Board of Education, respectively, before the Court of Commissioners for the recovery of Small Debts in Charlottetown, from the parents or guardians of the children.
