

III. And be it enacted, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the said Ordinance, any Deputy Registrar may resign or be removed from office by his Principal, and in the event of such resignation or removal, it shall be incumbent on such Principal to appoint another Deputy in his place within twenty days after the occurrence of such resignation or removal. And if any such Registrar shall neglect to appoint a Deputy Registrar as hereinbefore is prescribed, he shall forfeit five pounds current money of this Province, for each and every day during which he shall have neglected to make such appointment; which penalty shall and may be recovered in any Court of Record in Lower-Canada, and one half thereof shall go and be paid to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and the other half thereof to the informer.

Deputy Registrars may resign or be removed. Others to be appointed within a certain time.
