feeling expressed at this point by the people coming on Saturday is that students in New Brunswick just can't handle higher costs.

The caucus meeting on Saturday is expected to be a high-powered, high-spirited effort to come up with some reasonable demands that the provincial government and the university administrations come up with some clearer ways to improve the situation that we are in.

Interested people are welcome only half of what we need. The beginning at 10 a.m. in SUB 103.

Winnie the Pooh and Tigger the Tiger appeared at the Marshall D'Avary Pre-school centre to the delight of the children there. The two famous characters put in their appearance courtesy of the Sears Infants Dept. where they are the Heroes of that department. The appearance was arranged by Mr. John McGratten, Division Manager of the Infants Department.

The parts of the characters were played by Mr. David Halt, as Winnie the Pooh, and Mr.s Linda Brown as Tigger the Tiger

JUDY BUNTING

Running for education representative, Judy is interested in becoming involved with the SRC.

She has been somewhat involved already in that she has worked for two years as copy editor on the yearbook, been a member of the orientation and carnival committees, has been a member of the education society for some time, and involved with high school relations.

Judy feel ones of the main issues this year is the fact that education students in fourth year are compelled to pay both tuition and SRC fees despite the fact that they are often away practice teac ing for half the year.

She feels those students shouldn't have to pay full fees.

"I'd like to be the voice to represent my faculty" said Judy. She encouraged people to get out and vote, no matter who they choose to support.
