

154,757/2.

Ottawa, February 12, 1913.

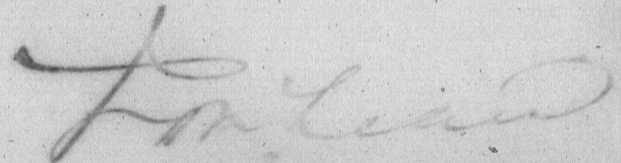

SIR,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th instant, submitting tender for ties and posts which the Indians of Shesheguaning are to take out this winter, and in reply to inform you that your tender has been accepted.

The cheque will be held as usual until after the satisfactory completion of the contract.

The Indian agent at Gore Bay has been advised that your tender has been accepted.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
