

C158785

- 3 -

may be that as a result of these informal discussions between officials a number of Governments concerned will find that they are in substantial agreement and they can then put forward generally agreed proposals for the consideration of other Governments.

5. I am repeating this telegram to our High Commissioners in Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, and am asking them to bring it to the attention of the Governments to which they are accredited.