

ARTICLE XXIII.

Subscription.

No Member shall be entitled to receive a premium or gratuity, without having previously paid to the Treasurer his annual subscription.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Plants to be property of competitor.

As this Society is formed for the advancement of Horticulture in Canada, it is understood that no plant shall be placed in competition for the regular prizes of the Society, except it shall have been in the Province for the space of three months, and is bona fide the property of the member offering it. The Committee may offer gratuities for the introduction of any foreign production.

ARTICLE XXV.

Alteration, how made.

The Constitution and By-Laws of the Society may be altered and amended at any regular meeting of the Society; a notification of the intended alteration having been made at a previous meeting, and two-thirds of those present voting for such alteration or amendment.

2d.—Resolved, That each of the persons now present be a Committee to procure subscribers and additional members of this Society, and that the proceedings of this meeting be published:

The Meeting for the Election of Officers, &c., was then adjourned until the twelfth day of September next.

J. W. DUNSCOMBE,

Secretary.
