There are too many people singing "I want to be an angel" who would be too lazy to groom their own wings if they had them.

Character, good or bad, has a tendency to perpetuate itself.—Professor Van Dyke.

To be good company for ourselves, we must store our minds well, fill them with happy and pure thoughts, with pleasant memories of the past and reasonable hopes for the future.—Selected.

God dwells in all things; and, felt in a man's heart, He is then to be felt in everything else. Only let there be God within us, and then everything outside us will become a Godlike help.—Euthanasia.

There is only one way by which more power can be obtained and that is by waiting on the Lord in confidence, in obedience and in patience. In this attitude of heart we shall change our strength, and getting more—perhaps consciously or perhaps unconsciously—until the day of testing comes, and find that in the time of stillness we have been endowed with "more power."—Rev. W. Y. Fullerton.
