

living? (he had been well paid for his geomancing). "You want me to die," was all he could say, and he went away very sadly. The missionary felt very sad, too, for he had gone all that long, long journey to show how sinners may be saved, but this man seemed slipping back into heathen darkness, though he had reached the very door of the kingdom. A few days passed, and the same man came again with a bright and happy face, and said, "Sir, it is all right, I have made up my mind, but you know"—holding up his right arm—"it is just like cutting off my right arm. I have nothing, for I am going to give up all for Christ's sake. Soon the sun will set behind the western mountains"—meaning death—"and I shall be with God, and it matters not what happens to me now."

MAKE NO DELAY.—Is a perfect cure for croup and colds, and I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil—one bottle of which cured me of a very bad cold. I would say to all sufferers, make no delay in using it as it gives quick relief.

MANNERS AT TABLE

The time for acquiring good table manners is during childhood, and at home. Years at boarding-school, hours spent over books of social etiquette, may efface vulgar habits, but can never give the ease and grace acquired in childhood at a well-ordered table. A child who is almost a baby can be taught to handle his knife and fork, or spoon if he is too young, or those more advanced implements, with a daintiness that will offend no one. Where there are children it is not a good plan to have a wide difference between your every-day and company china, silver and napery. There is too apt to be a wide difference also between every-day and company manners. Let each child have his cover as nicely laid with plate, knife and fork, spoon, napkin and glass as his elders, and remember that he will be sure to note your own use of these articles. Teach him to say "Thank you," and "please," and if he is allowed to leave the table before the meal is ended let him learn to say "Excuse me." We were very much amused at a baby of four summers who recently dined at our table. The meal, interspersed with interesting conversation, was tedious to his infant appetite and intellect, and finally the little man spoke up with, "May I be excused, please. I have enjoyed my dinner very much." Some one at the table—not his father—remarked that the boy bade fair to be "the finest gentleman in America."

LIFE IN A LUMBER CAMP.—While working in a lumber camp a year ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, I got no relief until I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam; which cured me entirely. I highly recommend it. John L. Wilson, Magnettawan, Ont.

DEATH DEALING DRUGS.—Such as Calomel, Morphine, etc., are remedies better left alone. They often weaken even strong constitutions. This Burdock Blood Bitters never does, it contains no mineral or other poison, and cures all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, and blood by unlocking the secretions and removing all impurities.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
