

“ They are assured, that their Proceedings in this Session will be “ a convincing Proof to your Excellency of their steady and inviolable “ Duty to His Majesty, from which principal (cultivated by their “ warmest Affections) they will never on any Occasion depart; justly “ sensible of the innumerable Blessings and Advantages which this Pro“ vince in a peculiar Manner enjoys under the Government of our “ Most Gracious Sovereign, we flatter ourselves with the hope, that “ the same grateful Sentiments with which every Heart is now warmed,
 “ will continue to distinguish this House in all its future Sessions.

“ It is with the greatest Satisfaction that I do in the Name of the “ Commons, and by their particular Command, return to your Ex“ cellency their unfeigned Thanks for your Prudence and Candour in “ the Execution of the high Trust committed to you, and more espe“ cially for your great Care and Attention to the Expenditure of public “ Money, and we feel the most pleasing Assurances, that the Happi“ nefs and Tranquility, which this Province now enjoys will not be “ interrupted so long as your Excellency shall continue to preside
 “ over it.”
