WITH UNFALTER

At Great Open A Noted Speak rary Steps, Th ance of Provi pire To-day

In truly meet and fitting mann it was that the city of Brantford I night united in commemorating a celebrating the anniversary of entry of Great Britain into the sent war, on the night of August 1914. In the presence of a gath ing of the largest proportions, and the highest spirit of enthusiasm a loyalty, the celebration took place the steps of the public library, whi building was beautifully decorat with colored flags and bunting honor of the occasion. Among t speakers of the evening was incur ed Lt. Col. G. H. Williams, seni chaplain and chief recruiting offic of the district, who delivered a me hopeful and encouraging address which he conveyed to all the info mation that the day of the allies w now at hand, and the night of the failure past. Other speakers of t evening were Mr. W. G. Raymon Lt. Col. Harry Cockshutt, His Wo ship, Mayor Bowlby and Capt. t Rev. S. E. McKegney, while one the principal features of the eveni-were presentations made to the 215 battalion by the Women's Patrio League and the city council.

The Parade. Assembling at the armories 7.15, the 215th battalies, togeth with the speakers and other proment citizens joined in the para which proceeded to Victoria Park v Colborne, Alfred, Wellington a George streets, where large crow were assembled awaiting the co nencement of the evening's servi Under the supervision of Lt. Col.

F. Leonard the parade proved a me thorough success. Band Selections On the arrival at the park, chair was taken on the platfo rary steps, by Lt. Col. Cockshutt 215th battalion, and the progr was proceeded without delay. T numbers, including the anthem, God. Our Help in Ages Past" the gathering joining in the sing of the latter number. The prayer invocation was then made by H Llewellyn Brown. "After exactly two years of wasaid Lt.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, in address as chairman of the asser lage, "we are thankful to know t the allies to-day hold the u hand; may it continue so to the e our duty as befitting citizens of great empire of which we form Field Kitchen Presented. Followed then the presentation the field kitchen to the 215th bai ion, the address being read by W. C. Livingstone on behalf of Women's Patriotic League.

Also a Cheque In the capacity of Chief Magist of Brantford, Mayor Bowlby exte ed his sincerest greetings to members of the 215th battalion, sembled before him, prepared sacrifice even their lives for the holding of the ideals of the emp To all of them he expressed his wishes, and the hope that emight uphold the honor and dig of the country to which he belom On behalf of the city council, M Bowlby then presented Lt. Col. C shutt with a cheque for $500, t devoted to the battalion funds in manner whatever. To these prese tions a fitting reply was made Col. Cockshutt, who expressed thanks of the battalion to the nen's Patriotic League and the zens generally for the excellent and co-operation accorded the iers upon every occasion. sorrowful hearts it was, he exp ed, that the battalion was less Brantford for Niagara, but it was revoir, and not good-bye which must say. For the ladies of county, and for the city counce Brantford, Lt. Col. Cockshutt called for three hearty cheers were given with a will by all.

An Appeal for Men. An eloquent and forceful for recruits was that delivered a juncture by Capt. the Rev. S. 1 Kegney, chaplain of the 215th b ion, who appealed most vividl the single men of Brant County were found still hesitating afte years of war. To the women county, whether married or u-ried, he also appealed to use influence, and to create such a opinion that all eligible young would be forced to don the The present day was one of
